1. NAME OF THE SOCIETY

The name of the Society is The Thoracic Society of Australia and New Zealand (NZ Branch) Incorporated.

2. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

2.1 Definitions

In this Constitution, unless there is something in the subject or context which is inconsistent:

Charities Act means the Charities Act 2005 (NZ).

Co-Opted Executive Member means a person appointed as an Executive Member pursuant to clause 9.7.

Elected Executive Member means an Executive Member elected pursuant to clause 9.9.

Executive means the executive of the Society.

Executive Member means any person holding the position of an executive member of the Society, and Executive Members means the executive members for the time being of the Society or, as the context permits, such number of them as have authority to act for the Society.

Incorporated Societies Act means the Incorporated Societies Act 1908 (NZ).

Member means a member of the Society pursuant to clauses 4.1 and 4.2, and Membership has the corresponding meaning.

Member Present means in connection with a meeting of Members, a Voting Member being present in person or by proxy or attorney.

New Zealand Director means the President in his or her capacity as a director on the TSANZ Ltd Board.

Non-voting Members are those Members who:

(a) may not exercise any voting rights; and

(b) are not eligible for election to the position of any Officer of the Society;

and includes:

(c) Associate Members;

(d) Fellow Members who are otherwise Non-voting Members;
(e) Associate Honorary Life Members; and

(f) Student Members.

Objects means the objects of the Society as set out in clause 3(e).

Officer means an Executive Member of the Society, and the Secretary.

Past President means the immediate past President of the Society pursuant to clause 9.4.

President means a person appointed to that position pursuant to clause 9.3.

President Elect means a person appointed to that position pursuant to clause 9.2.

Register means the register of Members to be kept pursuant to the Incorporated Societies Act.

Registrar means the Registrar of Incorporated Societies pursuant to the Incorporated Societies Act.

Secretary means the person appointed as the secretary of the Society pursuant to clause 9.8 and includes any assistant or acting secretary.

Society means The Thoracic Society of Australia and New Zealand (NZ Branch) Incorporated.

Treasurer means a person appointed to that position pursuant to clause 9.5.

TSANZ Ltd means The Thoracic Society of Australia and New Zealand Limited, being an Australian public company limited by guarantee.

TSANZ Ltd Board means the board of directors of TSANZ Ltd.

TSANZ Ltd Constitution means the constitution of TSANZ as set out in Appendix 1 to this Constitution, as amended or supplemented from time to time.

Voting Members are those Members who:

(a) are entitled to vote at meetings of the Members; and

(b) are eligible for election to the position of any Officer of the Society;

and includes:

(c) Ordinary Members;

(d) Emeritus Members;

(e) Honorary Life Members; and
(f) Fellow Members who are otherwise Voting Members;

but does not include:

(g) Associate Members;

(h) Fellow Members who are otherwise Non-voting Members;

(i) Associate Honorary Life Members; and

(j) Student Members.

2.2 Interpretation

(a) In this Constitution, unless there is something in the subject or context which is inconsistent:

(i) the singular includes the plural and vice versa;

(ii) each gender includes the other two genders;

(iii) the word "person" means a natural person and any partnership, association, body or entity whether incorporated or not;

(iv) the words "writing" and "written" include any other mode of representing or reproducing words, figures, drawings or symbols in a visible form;

(v) where any word or phrase is defined, any other part of speech or other grammatical form of that word or phrase has a cognate meaning;

(vi) a reference to any clause or schedule is to a clause or schedule of this Constitution; and

(vii) a reference to any statute, proclamation, rule, code, regulation or ordinance includes any amendment, consolidation, modification, re-enactment or reprint of it or any statute, proclamation, rule, code, regulation or ordinance replacing it.

(b) An expression used in a particular Part or Division of an act or regulation that is given by that Part or Division a special meaning for the purposes of that Part or Division has, unless the contrary intention appears, in any clause that deals with a matter dealt with by that Part or Division the same meaning as in that Part or Division.

(c) Headings do not form part of or affect the construction or interpretation of this Constitution.
3. DESCRIPTION OF SOCIETY AND ITS OBJECTS

(a) The Society is an incorporated charitable not-for-profit public society, registered as a charity pursuant to the Charities Act (registration number CC25094).

(b) The purpose of this Constitution is to set out the constitutional arrangement for the Society, as required for its incorporation as a society under New Zealand law.

(c) The Society is a member of TSANZ Ltd, a not-for-profit public company limited by guarantee in Australia, by virtue of clause 6.12 of the TSANZ Ltd Constitution.

(d) The TSANZ Ltd Constitution will be referred to in the present Constitution and should be read in conjunction with the present Constitution for the purposes of clarification.

(e) The Objects of the Society shall be to:

(i) encourage collegial, professional relationships between all professionals who are involved in the care of patients with respiratory diseases (including sleep related breathing disorders), health promotion related to respiratory diseases, or research activities related to respiratory diseases;

(ii) promote continuing education and accreditation of specialists, nurses, scientists and allied health professionals in the field of respiratory medicine;

(iii) provide a forum for presentation and critical review of research and other activities designed to investigate and enhance understanding and treatment of respiratory diseases;

(iv) promote “best practice” standards of care among health care professionals with an interest in respiratory disease, including ethical standards;

(v) encourage and support the postgraduate training of doctors and nurses with an interest in respiratory medicine, and ensure that it is of a high standard;

(vi) provide advocacy to ensure that resources for the prevention and management of respiratory diseases in New Zealand are sufficient to meet the burden of disease;

(vii) promote the application of new information important to the advancement of patient care;

(viii) advocate for, and present to government, industry, the public and other bodies as appropriate, the resources and strategies required to ensure optimal care of patients, prevention of respiratory disease, and advancement of knowledge in relation to respiratory health in New Zealand;

(ix) promote the goal of a tobacco-smoke-free New Zealand;

(x) promote collaboration between all national organisations whose objects are to improve the wellbeing of individuals with respiratory disease;

(xi) pursue all of the above listed objectives in a manner which recognises the particular needs and aspirations of Maori in the New Zealand community; and

(xii) anything ancillary to the Objects referred to in clauses 3(e)(i) to 3(e)(xi), and not inconsistent with clause 5.1 of the TSANZ Ltd Constitution.

4. ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP

4.1 Eligibility for Membership

Any individual is entitled to become a Member if the individual:

(a) is a member of TSANZ Ltd, pursuant to the requirements of the TSANZ Ltd Constitution;

(b) is ordinarily resident in New Zealand;

(c) supports the Objects of the Society and agrees to comply with the terms of this Constitution, any by-laws and any code of conduct which the Executive may produce from time to time; and

(d) lodges an application in accordance with clause 4.3.

4.2 Classes of Membership

(a) There shall be the following classes of Membership:

(i) Ordinary Members;

(ii) Associate Members;

(iii) Emeritus Members;

(iv) Honorary Life Members; and

(v) Fellow Members;

(vi) Associate Honorary Life Members; and

(vii) Student Members; and
(viii) any other class of Membership, as determined by the TSANZ Ltd Board from time to time, including in any TSANZ Ltd By-Laws.

(b) The qualifications for admission to each Membership class and the rights attached to each Membership class shall be determined by the TSANZ Ltd Board from time to time.

4.3 Application for Membership

Applications for Membership must be submitted to the Executive’s delegate, being the TSANZ Ltd Board, in the manner determined by the TSANZ Ltd Board from time to time.

4.4 Registration as a Member

(a) Applications for Membership shall be considered by the Executive’s delegate, being the TSANZ Ltd Board.

(b) If the Executive’s delegate accepts an application for Membership, the Executive or its delegate must record the name of the person in the Register, in accordance with the requirements of the Incorporated Societies Act.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, where an applicant has his or her application for Membership accepted, that person shall be deemed to have agreed to comply with both:

(i) the terms of this Constitution, any by-laws and any code of conduct which the Executive may produce from time to time; and

(ii) the TSANZ Ltd Constitution, any by-laws and any code of conduct which the TSANZ Ltd Board may produce from time to time, by virtue of their concurrent membership of TSANZ Ltd.

(d) A Member of the Society will hold the same class of Membership as he or she holds with TSANZ Ltd, and where their class of Membership with TSANZ Ltd changes, it will automatically change with the Society.

4.5 Membership entitlements not transferable

A right, privilege or obligation which a person has by reason of being a Member:

(a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person; and

(b) terminates on cessation of the person’s Membership.

5. CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

A Member’s Membership of the Society will cease:
(a) in the event that the Member ceases to be a member of TSANZ Ltd;

(b) on the date that is one (1) month after the Secretary receives written notice of resignation from that Member;

(c) upon that Member’s death;

(d) if the Member is expelled pursuant to clause 6 of the Constitution; and

(e) upon that Member no longer satisfying the criteria for its respective class of membership (unless transferred to another class of membership by the TSANZ Ltd Board).

6. DISCIPLINING OF MEMBERS

6.1 Disciplining of Members

(a) Where the Executive is of the opinion that a Member has:

(i) persistently refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of this Constitution; or

(ii) persistently and wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Society;

the Executive may refer the matter to the TSANZ Ltd Board who, as the Executive’s delegate, may:

(iii) expel the Member from the Society; or

(iv) suspend the Member from Membership of the Society for a specified period.

(b) In making a determination pursuant to clause 6.1(a) the TSANZ Ltd Board, as the Executive’s delegate, will apply the provisions of the TSANZ Ltd Constitution relating to the disciplining of members, being clause 11. In clause 11, references to the:

(i) ‘Constitution’, being the TSANZ Ltd Constitution, shall be taken to be references to this Constitution;

(ii) ‘Company’, being TSANZ Ltd, shall be taken to be references to the Society;

(iii) ‘Company Secretary’, being the company secretary of TSANZ Ltd, shall be taken to be references to the Secretary of the Society; and

(iv) ‘general meeting’, being a general meeting of TSANZ Ltd pursuant to clause 11.2, shall be taken to be a general meeting of the Society.
7. SUBSCRIPTIONS

Notwithstanding any annual fee or subscription payable by a Member to TSANZ Ltd (by virtue of them being a member of TSANZ Ltd), there shall be no annual subscription payable by a Member to the Society.

8. USE OF FUNDS

(a) All subscriptions and other funds, except donations, received by or originating from Executive Members and Members of the Society will be donated to and administered by TSANZ Ltd.

(b) Donations received from the general public, the Executive and/or Members of the Society shall be retained at a nominated bank account of the Society maintained exclusively for charitable, benevolent, philanthropic, or cultural purposes within New Zealand.

(c) All funds raised by and assets belonging to the Society will be transferred to and held by TSANZ Ltd on behalf of the Society, unless otherwise specified by the Executive and with the agreement of the TSANZ Ltd Board, or unless otherwise required by law.

(d) A prospective annual budget for the Society will be drawn up and approved by the Executive, and presented to the TSANZ Ltd Board. The budget will be considered and ratified at the discretion of the TSANZ Ltd Board in consultation with the President who is ex officio a director on the TSANZ Ltd Board.

(e) The Society shall hold a bank account in the name of the Society as approved by the Executive. All cheques and withdrawals from that account shall be signed by the:

   (i) Treasurer or one (1) other Executive Member; and

   (ii) the chief executive officer of TSANZ Ltd.

(f) No part of the Society’s funds may be used for the private benefit of any Member, including any Executive Member, or for any other purpose that is not charitable in law.

(g) Where required by law, the Executive will make provision for an annual audit or review of the Society’s accounts for presentation and approval at the annual general meeting. Other provisions for the oversight and protection of the Society will be made as necessary.

(h) Any auditor or reviewer shall have no personal or financial relationship in the Society or with the Treasurer of the Society.
(i) The Society shall cause to be kept proper accounts in which a full true and complete record of all income, expenditure and other financial transactions of the Society will be recorded.

9. OFFICE BEARERS AND EXECUTIVE

9.1 Size and Composition of Executive

(a) The affairs of the Society shall be managed by an Executive, which shall consist of:

(i) the President;

(ii) the immediate Past President or the President Elect;

(iii) not less than (3) and not more than five (5) Elected Executive Members (as determined by the Executive); and

(iv) up to four (4) Co-Opted Executive Members.

(b) With the exception of Co-Opted Executive Members, an Executive Member must be a Voting Member at all times that he or she is holding office as an Executive Member.

9.2 President Elect

(a) Prior to an Executive Member being eligible to be appointed as the President, that Executive Member shall be required to have served a one (1) year term as President Elect immediately prior to assuming office as the President.

(b) One (1) year before the expiry of the term of any President, the Members shall, in accordance with clause 9.9, elect a Voting Member to the office of President Elect.

(c) For the purposes of clause 9.9, the minimum number of other Voting Members required to nominate a candidate for election as President Elect, is ten (10).

(d) The President Elect shall hold the office of President Elect for a term of one (1) year.

9.3 President

(a) The President Elect shall, on the expiry of his or her one (1) year term, by default assume the position of President.

(b) The President shall hold the office of President for a term of two (2) years.

(c) The President will be a member of the TSANZ Ltd Board. He / she will be known as the New Zealand Director for the purpose of the TSANZ Ltd Board.
9.4 Past President

(a) Upon retiring as the President, that Executive Member by default immediately becomes the Past President.

(b) The Past President shall have a term of one (1) year as Past President.

(c) The Past President is eligible for re-election to the position of President Elect after at least a four year non-Board participation period.

9.5 Treasurer

(a) The Executive shall, at the first meeting of the Executive held after the annual general meeting at which the position of Treasurer has become vacant, appoint from amongst the newly-elected Elected Executive Members sitting on the Executive at that time, a Treasurer.

(b) The Treasurer shall hold the office of Treasurer for a term of two (2) years, but shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further term of two (2) years (where the Treasurer has been re-elected as an Elected Executive Member).

(c) The Treasurer shall not hold the office of Treasurer for more than four (4) consecutive years.

(d) The Treasurer is eligible for re-election to the position of Treasurer on the expiry of two (2) years after they last held office as Treasurer.

(e) The Treasurer will be responsible to the Executive and to the Members for ensuring that all the financial details of the Society are presented to the Executive, and the Treasurer will present such data at each annual general meeting.

9.6 Elected Executive Members

(a) The Elected Executive Members referred to in clause 9.1(a)(iii) shall be elected in accordance with clause 9.9, following the Executive declaring the number of vacancies or positions to be filled.

(b) For the purposes of clause 9.9(a)(i), the minimum number of Voting Members required to nominate a candidate for election as an Elected Executive Member is two (2).

(c) Each Elected Executive Member shall hold office for a term of two (2) years, but shall be eligible for re-election for a further term of two (2) years. Elected Executive Members shall not hold office as an Elected Executive Member for more than four (4) consecutive years.

(d) Notwithstanding clause 9.6(c), at the annual general meeting held approximately one (1) year after the adoption of this Constitution two (2) of the Elected Executive Members shall retire (and be eligible for re-election for two (2) further terms of two (2) years each).
(e) At the first Executive meeting held after the adoption of this Constitution, the Executive will determine which Elected Executive Members will be subject to clause 9.6(d).

9.7 Co-Opted Executive Members

(a) The Executive can appoint up to four (4) Co-Opted Executive Members to the Executive as it determines from time to time.

(b) A Co-Opted Executive Member shall be a person who will bring skills and experience to the Executive to enable the Executive to advance the Objects.

(c) Each Co-Opted Executive Member shall hold the office of Co-Opted Executive Member for a maximum term of one (1) year and will be eligible for re-appointment for a further term of one (1) year. Co-Opted Executive Members shall not hold office for more than two (2) consecutive years.

9.8 Secretary

(a) The Executive shall, at the first meeting of the Executive held after the annual general meeting at which the position of Secretary has become vacant, appoint from amongst the newly-elected Elected Executive Members sitting on the Executive at that time, a Secretary.

(b) The Secretary shall hold the office of Secretary for a term of two (2) years, but shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further term of two (2) years (where the Secretary has been re-elected as an Elected Executive Member).

(c) The Secretary shall not hold the office of Secretary for more than four (4) consecutive years.

(d) The Secretary is eligible for re-appointment to the position of Secretary on the expiry of two (2) years after they last held office as Secretary.

9.9 Election of Executive Members

(a) Nomination of candidates for election as President Elect and Elected Executive Member:

(i) must be made in writing in the form prescribed by the Executive from time to time, signed by the requisite number of other Members (as stipulated by this Constitution) and accompanied by written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of the nomination); and

(ii) must be delivered to the Secretary at least twenty one (21) days before the date fixed for the holding of the election.

(b) The Executive shall cause an election to be held for the election of candidates as the Executive Members referred to in clause 9.9(a) prior to an annual general meeting or at an annual general meeting in whatever manner and upon whichever date the Executive shall decide, which may include an electronic ballot.

(c) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies of Executive Members (referred to in clause 9.9(a)) on the Executive, the candidates nominated shall be deemed to be elected and further nominations for the vacant positions shall be received at the annual general meeting or, in the case of an electronic election, at the annual general meeting following the electronic election.

(d) If insufficient further nominations are received, any vacant positions of Executive Members remaining on the Executive shall be deemed to be casual vacancies.

(e) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies of Executive Members (referred to in clause 9.9(a)) to be filled, the persons nominated shall be deemed to be elected.

(f) If the number of nominations received for Executive Members (referred to in clause 9.9(a)) exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot shall be held. The Executive shall determine, in its discretion, how and when the ballot shall be conducted.

9.10 Term

(a) The term of each Executive Member shall be in accordance with the applicable provisions in clauses 9.2 to 9.8.

(b) Notwithstanding clause 9.10(a), where an Executive Member’s term expires and he or she is ineligible for reappointment or re-election to that position due to having served the maximum term for that position, the retiring Executive Member shall be eligible to hold another office on the Executive, subject to satisfying the requirements attached to that office.

9.11 Vacation of Office

The office of an Executive Member shall become vacant if the Executive Member:

(a) dies;

(b) subject to clause 9.1(b), ceases to be a Voting Member of the Society;

(c) is a health care professional who has been deregistered;

(d) becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with creditors generally;

(e) becomes prohibited from being a director or other responsible person of, or managing, a company or society by reason of any order made under the law;

(f) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose personal estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health;
(g) resigns by notice in writing to the Society; or

(h) is absent without permission of the Executive from meetings of the Executive held for more than six (6) consecutive months.

9.12 Casual Vacancies in Executive Member Positions

(a) If there is a casual vacancy,

(i) in the office of President, the President Elect or Past President, as the case may be, will fill such casual vacancy, and hold office for the balance of the term of the vacating President, and where the person filling the casual vacancy is the President Elect, shall continue to hold office for the full term that the President Elect would have held office as President if the original President had not vacated;

(ii) in the office of President Elect, that office shall remain vacant for the balance of the term of the vacating President Elect and, at the next annual general meeting of the Society, the Voting Members shall, in accordance with clause 9.9, elect a Voting Member to the office of President, who shall (notwithstanding the provisions of clause 9.2), immediately assume office as President pursuant to clause 9.3;

(iii) in the office of Past President, that office shall remain vacant for the balance of the term of the vacating Past President;

(iv) in the office of an Elected Executive Member, the Executive may appoint a Voting Member to fill any such casual vacancy, and any Executive Member so appointed shall only hold office until the next annual general meeting of the Society after the appointment is made; and

(v) in the office of a Co-Opted Executive Member, the Executive may appoint a new Co-Opted Executive Member to fill any such casual vacancy, and any Co-Opted Executive Member so appointed shall hold office for a full term pursuant to clause 9.7(c).

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution to the contrary, where there is a casual vacancy in an Executive Member position that arises due to the expiry of the outgoing Executive Member’s term, and that vacancy cannot otherwise be filled pursuant to clause 9.12(a), that outgoing Executive Member may, at the Executive’s discretion, continue to hold office for a further term.

9.13 Meetings of Executive

(a) The Executive shall meet regularly (face to face or by teleconference or any other electronic means) at least four (4) times per annum.

(b) The Executive shall meet at such times and places as shall be decided by the President and Secretary, giving at least three (3) weeks’ notice to all other Executive Members of their intention to do so.
(c) The chief executive officer of TSANZ Ltd shall have a standing invitation as a guest at all Executive meetings, and the Executive shall provide the chief executive officer of TSANZ Ltd with at least three (3) weeks’ notice of all such meetings.

(d) A quorum will consist of three (3) Executive Members, and a quorum must be present at all times during the meeting.

(e) The President shall, if present, preside as chairman of every meeting of the Executive. However, if a meeting of the Executive is held and the President is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or, if present, does not wish to chair the meeting, then:

(i) President Elect or Past President, as the case may be, shall; or

(ii) failing him or her, the Treasurer shall; or

(iii) failing him or her the other Executive Members present must elect one of their number to;

be chairman of the meeting.

(f) The President shall have the right to exercise a casting vote at all meetings, as well as having a deliberative vote.

(g) The Executive must ensure that minutes are kept for the purposes of recording. This shall be mandatory where any Executive decisions pertain to the disbursement of Society funds.

10. GENERAL MEETINGS

10.1 Convening general meetings

(a) An annual general meeting shall be held once every calendar year.

(b) The business of the annual general meeting shall be to:

(i) receive annual reports from office bearers;

(ii) receive financial statements;

(iii) to conduct elections; and

(iv) to conduct general business.

(c) Extraordinary general meetings may be held at such times and places as shall be determined by the Executive, or at the request of not less than fifteen (15) Members.

10.2 Notice of general meetings
(a) Subject to consent to shorter notice being given, the Members will be given twenty eight (28) days’ notice of any general meeting and such notice will specify:

(i) the place, day and hour of the meeting;

(ii) the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting;

(iii) if the meeting is to be held in two (2) or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this; and

(iv) any other information required by law.

(b) At all general meetings, twelve (12) Members shall constitute a quorum.

(c) All Voting Members present shall be entitled to one (1) vote each.

(d) The accidental omission to give notice of any general meeting or the non-receipt of notice of a general meeting by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the business at that meeting.

(e) Subject to clause 10.2(d), notice of every general meeting must be given in any manner authorised by this Constitution to:

(i) every Member;

(ii) every Executive Member; and

(iii) the auditor for the time being of the Society (if any).

10.3 Proxies

(a) A Member who is entitled to attend and vote at a General Meeting of the Society may appoint a person as the Member’s proxy to attend and vote for the member at the meeting, and such appointment must be in writing pursuant to Appendix 3.

(b) If a Member appoints a proxy, the proxy is entitled to vote on a show of hands and on a poll. The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing signed by the appointer. The instrument of proxy is valid if it contains the following information:

(i) the name and address of the Member; and

(ii) the proxy’s name or the name of the office of the proxy; and

(iii) the meeting(s) at which the instrument of proxy may be used.

(a) An instrument of proxy may be expressed to be a standing appointment. An instrument of proxy for a specified meeting is only valid for that meeting and any postponement or adjournment of that meeting.
(b) Minutes will be kept for all annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings by the Secretary of the Society.

11. CHANGES TO CONSTITUTION

(a) The Constitution may be altered or replaced in accordance with the requirements of the Incorporated Societies Act.

(b) No alteration to the Constitution will be allowed which derogates from the charitable objects of the Society.

12. POWERS OF THE SOCIETY

(a) The Society shall have powers as may be lawfully exercised to fulfil the Objects of the Society.

(b) The Executive of the Society shall have full power to transact all the business of the Society and shall exercise all such powers of the Society as are not required by the Incorporated Societies Act, the Charities Act, or by this Constitution or by the TSANZ Ltd Constitution to be exercised in any other manner.

13. COMMON SEAL

The Executive’s delegate, being the chief executive officer of TSANZ Ltd, shall have custody of the common seal of the Society and such seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a resolution of the Executive.

14. ACCOUNTS AND INSPECTIONS

The Executive shall:

(a) cause proper financial records to be kept and must, if required by the Incorporated Societies Act or the Charities Act, prepare and distribute copies of the financial reports of the Society;

(b) where required by the Incorporated Societies Act or the Charities Act, cause the financial records to be audited or reviewed by a properly qualified auditor or other entity authorised by law; and

(c) from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounting and other records of the Society or any of them will be open to the inspection of Members.
15. WINDING UP

If a decision is made to wind up or dissolve the Society and any property remains after the settlement of the Society’s debts and liabilities, that property must not be paid or distributed amongst Members, but will be given or transferred:

(a) by resolution; or

(b) according to the provisions of the Incorporated Societies Act;

to another organisation(s) for a similar charitable purpose or purposes to that of the Society, as defined in section 5(1) of the Charities Act.

APPENDIX 1 – BY-LAWS.................................................................................................. 56
1. NAME OF THE COMPANY

The name of the Company is The Thoracic Society of Australia and New Zealand Limited.

2. TYPE OF COMPANY

(a) The Company is a not-for-profit public company limited by guarantee.

(b) Subject to this Constitution, each person who is a Member and each person who was a Member during the year ending on the day of the commencement of the winding up of the Company, undertakes to contribute to the property of the Company for:

(i) payment of debts and liabilities of the Company;

(ii) payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and

(iii) any adjustment of the rights of the contributories among Members.

(c) The amount that each Member or past Member is liable to contribute is limited to $5.50 (GST inclusive).

(d) The Members acknowledge that the Company has the power to collect the Member’s Guarantee Amount at any time prior to the time referred to in clause 2(b) on the following conditions:

(i) the Company holds the Member’s Guarantee Amount in trust for the Member until such time as it can be appropriated pursuant to this Constitution;

(ii) any Member’s Guarantee Amount held in trust by the Company will not entitle that Member to any interest on the Member’s Guarantee Amount; and

(iii) upon the death of the Member or upon cessation of the Member’s Membership, the Member’s Guarantee Amount will be added to the Company’s donations and bequests accounts unless otherwise directed in writing by the Member or the Member’s executor within one (1) month of the Member’s death or cessation of the Member’s Membership.
3. REPLACEABLE RULES

This Constitution displaces the Replaceable Rules to the extent that it is inconsistent with any Replaceable Rules.

4.2 Interpretation

(a) In this Constitution, unless there is something in the subject or context which is inconsistent:

(i) the singular includes the plural and vice versa;

(ii) each gender includes the other two genders;

(iii) the word "person" means a natural person and any partnership, association, body or entity whether incorporated or not;

(iv) the words "writing" and "written" include any other mode of representing or reproducing words, figures, drawings or symbols in a visible form;

(v) where any word or phrase is defined, any other part of speech or other grammatical form of that word or phrase has a cognate meaning;

(vi) a reference to any clause or schedule is to a clause or schedule of this Constitution;

(vii) a reference to any statute, proclamation, rule, code, regulation or ordinance includes any amendment, consolidation, modification, re enactment or reprint of it or any statute, proclamation, rule, code, regulation or ordinance replacing it.

(b) An expression used in a particular Part or Division of an Act or Regulation that is given by that Part or Division a special meaning for the purposes of that Part or Division has, unless the contrary intention appears, in any clause that deals with a matter dealt with by that Part or Division the same meaning as in that Part or Division.

(c) Headings do not form part of or affect the construction or interpretation of this Constitution.

5. OBJECTS AND PURPOSES

5.1 Objects

(a) The Company is a health promotion charity established to promote and advance clinical standards, education and research in respiratory disease by:

(i) promoting the highest quality and standards of patient care;

(ii) promoting the development and application of knowledge about respiratory health and disease;

(iii) promoting the goal of a tobacco smoke free society;

(iv) promoting a collaboration between all national organisations whose objects are to improve the well being of individuals with lung disease and to promote better lung health for the community;

(v) promoting the professional and collegiate needs of the Membership; and

(vi) anything else ancillary to the objects set out in clauses 5.1(a)(i) to 5.1(a)(v).

(b) In pursuing the foregoing the Company shall endeavour to:

(i) define and promote standards of clinical practice at the level appropriate to current knowledge;

(ii) promote the review of, and research into the effectiveness of, current, new and proposed methods for the diagnosis, management and prevention of respiratory disease;

(iii) ensure that the training of medical and other health professionals in respiratory disorders at undergraduate and particularly at postgraduate levels is appropriate and of a high quality;

(iv) ensure that the workforce requirements and facilities for patient care and research related to respiratory disease are appropriate to the magnitude of the problem of respiratory disease in the community and to current knowledge;

(v) promote clinical, basic and epidemiological research into respiratory disorders and the publication of the results of such research;

(vi) support the aims and assist the activities of likeminded organisations including the Lung Foundation Australia or any other successor thereto;

(vii) provide a forum for presentation and critical review of research dealing with respiratory diseases and disorders;

(viii) advocate for and present to government, industry, the public and other bodies as appropriate, the resources and strategies required to ensure optimal care of patients, prevention of respiratory disease, and advancement of knowledge in respect thereof;

(ix) promote the reasonable social and professional needs of the Members required to ensure the continuing involvement in this aspect of medicine;

(x) promote and help define ethical standards of medical practice and research in the area of respiratory disease;

(xi) seek to establish links and enter into relationships with national and international professional societies having similar objects;

(xii) maintain and promote the continuing education of the Membership; and (xiii) do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

5.2 Income and Property

(a) Subject to clause 5.3, the income and property of the Company will only be applied towards the promotion of the objects of the Company set out in clause 5.1.

(b) No income or property of the Company will be paid, transferred or distributed, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise to any Member of the Company. However nothing in this Constitution will prevent payment in good faith to a Member:
(i) in return for any services rendered or goods supplied in the ordinary and usual course of business to the Company;

(ii) of interest at a rate not exceeding current bank overdraft rates of interest for moneys lent to the Company; or

(iii) of reasonable and proper rent for premises leased by any Member to the Company.

5.3 Remuneration of Directors
Directors may be paid:

(a) such remuneration, and on such conditions, as the Board thinks fit;

(b) out of pocket expenses incurred by the Director in the performance of any duty as a Director where the amount payable does not exceed an amount previously approved by the Board; and

(c) for any service rendered to the Company by the Director in a professional or technical capacity, other than in the capacity as Director (for which the Director may be remunerated pursuant to clause 5.3(a)), where the provision of the service has the prior approval of the Board and where the amount payable is approved by the Board and is not more than an amount which commercially would be reasonable for the service.

MEMBERSHIP

6. ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP

6.1 Number of Members
The Company must have at least twenty five (25) Members.

6.2 Pre-condition to Membership
A person is entitled to become a Member if that person agrees to assume the liability to pay the Member’s Guarantee Amount and otherwise satisfies the criteria for the relevant class of Membership.

6.3 Becoming a Member
Subject to the Corporations Act, a person becomes a Member on the registration of that person’s name in the Register.
6.4 Classes of Membership

There shall be the following classes of Membership:

(a) Ordinary Members;
(b) Associate Members;
(c) Emeritus Members;
(d) Honorary Life Members;
(e) Fellow Members;
(f) Associate Honorary Life Members;
(g) Student Members;
(h) TSANZ NZ; and

(i) any other class of Membership, as determined by the Board from time to time, including in any By-Laws.

6.5 Ordinary Members

An Ordinary Member is a person who:

(a) (i) is a legally qualified medical practitioner, scientist or other health professional who has received appropriate postgraduate training and qualifications in respiratory medicine, sleep medicine, thoracic surgery or related fields; or

(ii) in the opinion of the Board has made a worthwhile contribution to the study or practice of respiratory medicine, sleep medicine, thoracic surgery or related fields; and

(b) meets the eligibility requirements set out in clause 6.13; and

(c) has had his or her application for Membership approved in accordance with this Constitution.

6.6 Associate Members

(a) An Associate Member is a person who:

(i) is a legally qualified medical practitioner, other health professional or other suitably qualified person; and

(ii) is interested in respiratory medicine, sleep medicine, thoracic surgery or related fields;
but:

(iii) does not meet the requirements of an Ordinary Member; and

(iv) meets the eligibility requirements set out in clause 6.13; and

(v) has had his or her application for Membership approved in accordance with this Constitution.

(b) An Associate Member will become an Ordinary Member once the eligibility requirements for Ordinary Membership set out in clause 6.5 have been satisfied. Once such eligibility requirements have been met, the Associate Member must apply for Ordinary Membership in accordance with clause 6.14 and must pay any additional Subscription arising from the change in class of Membership. Should an Associate Member meet the eligibility requirements for Ordinary Membership but fail to apply for Ordinary Membership, the Board may make the Associate Member an Ordinary Member, notwithstanding the Associate Member not having complied with clause 6.14. The Company Secretary shall notify the Associate Member of the change in Membership class.

6.7 Emeritus Members
An Emeritus Member is a Member whom the Board determines to admit to that category of Membership on the basis of that Member having made a notable contribution to the understanding, treatment or practice of respiratory medicine generally.

6.8 Honorary Life Members
An Honorary Life Member is a person whom the Board believes is sufficiently meritorious to bestow an honour upon and determines to admit that person to that category of Membership. The person may have been, but need not have been, a Member of the Company.

6.9 Fellow Members
(a) A Fellow Member is a person who:

(i) is a current Member of the Company;

(ii) has been a Member of the Company for at least five (5) years; and

(iii) has held a post-specialist qualification for at least ten (10) years in relation to respiratory medicine, sleep medicine, thoracic surgery or related fields, including but not limited to:

(A) Fellow of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians or equivalent; or

(B) PhD for research scientists; or

(C) appropriate professional qualifications for other Members of the Company; and

(iv) has in the opinion of the Board, a consistent record of service to the community in Australia or New Zealand and/or the Company in relation to respiratory medicine, sleep medicine, thoracic surgery or related fields, above and beyond that of which is part of a normal professional role, including but not limited to, involvement in:

(A) advocacy; or

(B) clinical service organisation(s); or

(C) planning and contribution to research; and

(v) has provided professional references from two (2) current Ordinary Members with his or her application for Membership as a Fellow Member; and

(vi) has had his or her application for Membership approved in accordance with this Constitution.

(b) At each annual general meeting, the Chairman will table a list of the applications for Fellow Membership that have been approved since the previous annual general meeting.

(c) After the relevant annual general meeting in clause 6.9(b):

(i) the Company Secretary will issue a certificate to the new Fellow Members who have been approved as proof of the Board’s approval of their Membership; and

(ii) the approved Fellow Members may use the letters “FThorSoc” as a post nominal.

(d) Fellow Members retain the Membership they had pursuant to clause 6.9(a)(i) whilst they are Fellow Members.
(ii) Fellow members do not, as a consequence of simultaneously being in two (2) classes of Membership:

(A) incur any additional liabilities (for example, having to pay two (2) sets of Member’s Guarantee Amounts);

(B) enjoy any additional rights (for example, two (2) votes at general meetings); or

(C) need to receive twice the number of notices that they would otherwise be entitled to.

6.10 Associate Honorary Life Members

An Associate Honorary Life Member is:

(a) an Associate Member who has retired from full-time employment in respiratory and related fields; and

(b) has applied to the Company Secretary for Membership as a Associate Honorary Life Member upon their retirement.

6.11 Student Members

A Student Member is a person who:

(a) is enrolled in a recognised tertiary institution in Australia or New Zealand;

(b) is studying to be a medical practitioner, scientist or other health professional;

(c) is interested in respiratory medicine, sleep medicine, thoracic surgery or related fields;

(d) meets the eligibility requirements set out in clause 6.13; and

(e) has had his or her application for Membership approved in accordance with this Constitution.

6.12 TSANZ NZ

(a) In 1989 the New Zealand Thoracic Society was amalgamated with the Australian Thoracic Society to form the Association.

(b) The New Zealand branch of the Association subsequently incorporated itself as a separate legal entity in New Zealand, which is TSANZ NZ.
(c) TSANZ NZ is governed by its own constituent document and operates subject to the laws of New Zealand.

(d) TSANZ NZ is a Member of the Company and, subject to clause 50(e), must comply with this Constitution and the By-Laws.

(e) TSANZ NZ shall be a Non-voting Member of the Company.

(f) TSANZ NZ has its own members. Those members are entitled to become Members and share all of the rights afforded to Members pursuant to this Constitution.

(g) The New Zealand Branch President will, by virtue of that office, automatically be appointed to the Board pursuant to clause 32.7.

(h) For the purposes of this Constitution, TSANZ NZ is, in all respects, the same as the New Zealand Branch.

6.13 Eligibility for Membership

(a) Any person is eligible to become a Member if the person:

(i) with the exception of TSANZ NZ, is a natural person;

(ii) is, in the Board’s opinion, of good character;

(iii) with the exception of:

(A) Emeritus Members;

(B) Honorary Life Members; and

(C) TSANZ NZ;

lodges an application form in accordance with clause 6.14;

(iv) in the event that he or she resides in New Zealand, is at all times a member of TSANZ NZ;

(v) subject to clauses 9(a) and 9(e), pays the first annual Subscription in accordance with clause 9; and

(vi) with the exception of TSANZ NZ, has the requisite educational qualifications and training, and provides evidence of those educational qualifications upon request.
(b) The Board will, in its discretion, determine the educational qualifications required for each class of Membership, from time to time.

6.14 Application for Membership

(a) Only a person satisfying the eligibility requirements for Membership referred to in clause 6.13(a) may apply for Membership.

(b) With the exception of:

(i) Emeritus Members;

(ii) Honorary Life Members; and

(iii) TSANZ NZ;

applicants for Membership must:

(iv) complete an application form prescribed by the Board from time to time;

(v) be proposed and seconded by existing Ordinary Members; and

(vi) lodge application forms at the Office.

6.15 Consideration for application for Membership

(a) Subject to clauses 6.7 and 6.8, at the first meeting of the Board after an application for Membership has been received by the Board, the Board must consider the application and either accept or reject the application.

(b) The Board can accept or reject an application in its unfettered discretion and is not required to provide any reasons to anyone for its acceptance or rejection of an application for Membership.

6.16 Registration as Member

(a) If the Board accepts an application for Membership, the Company Secretary must notify the applicant of the acceptance and register the name of the person in the Register.

(b) If the Board rejects an application for Membership, the Company Secretary must notify the unsuccessful applicant and any moneys lodged by that applicant shall be returned to the applicant.
6.17 Non-voting Members

Non-voting Members have all of the rights and privileges of Voting Members, except that they:

(a) may not exercise any voting rights; and

(b) are not eligible for election to the position of any Officer of the Company.

7. MEMBERSHIP ENTITLEMENTS NOT TRANSFERABLE

A right, privilege or obligation which a person has by reason of being a Member:

(a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person; and

(b) terminates on cessation of the person’s Membership.

8. REPRESENTATIVE

(a) This clause 8 only applies to TSANZ NZ.

(b) TSANZ NZ must appoint as its Representative a natural person.

(c) The name and address of the Representative will be entered in the Register as the representative of TSANZ NZ.

(d) All correspondence and notices from the Company will be served on that Representative and any notice served on a Representative will be deemed to be served on TSANZ NZ.

(e) If the appointment of a Representative by TSANZ NZ is made by reference to a position held, the appointment must identify the position.

(f) Despite clause 7, TSANZ NZ may remove and replace a Representative where TSANZ NZ gives written notice to the Board in a form approved by the Board.

(g) A signature by a Representative of TSANZ NZ on behalf of TSANZ NZ is taken to be the signature of TSANZ NZ for the purposes of this Constitution.

(h) Any power or right of TSANZ NZ as granted by this Constitution can be exercised by the Representative of TSANZ NZ.
(i) TSANZ NZ is represented at meetings of Members by its Representative, subject to the right of a Representative to appoint a proxy pursuant to clause 27.

(j) The actions of a Representative bind TSANZ NZ.

(k) Each Representative will comply with the terms of this Constitution in all matters pertaining to the Company as if a Member himself or herself.

9. SUBSCRIPTIONS

(a) There shall be an annual Subscription payable by each Member to the Company, except:

(i) Emeritus Members;

(ii) Honorary Life Members;

(iii) Associate Honorary Life Members; and

(iv) TSANZ NZ.

(b) A Fellow Member shall pay the annual Subscription (if any) applicable to the class of Membership of which that Fellow is a Member.

(c) The Board is at liberty to charge different classes of Membership different rates of Subscription.

(d) Subject to clause 9(e), the amount of any annual Subscription shall be fixed by the Board and shall be payable by Members at such times and in such manner as determined by the Board from time to time. The first annual Subscription is to be paid at the time of lodging an application for Membership in accordance with clause 6.14.

(e) The Board may in its discretion:

(i) determine that no annual Subscription is payable by a Member, a class of Members or any Members in a given year; or

(ii) a discounted annual Subscription is payable by a Member, a class of Members or any Members in a given year; and

(iii) extend the time for payment of an annual Subscription by any Member.
Subject to clause 9(e), if a Member fails to pay an annual Subscription:

(i) within thirty (30) days after it falls due; and

(ii) then fails to rectify the default within twenty eight (28) days of being notified of the default by the Company that Member’s Membership (and all associated Membership benefits and rights) shall be suspended.

Where a Member’s Membership is suspended in accordance with clause 9(f) the Board may, in its discretion:

(i) terminate the Member’s Membership and require the former Member to reapply in accordance with clause 6.14 before reinstating such Membership; or

(ii) require the suspended Member to pay the full annual Subscription for the current year, plus an administration fee (which is a genuine reimbursement of the cost of administering the reinstatement of the Member) which shall be payable in such amount and in such a manner as determined by the Board from time to time, before the Membership is reinstated.

No part of any annual Subscription shall be refunded to a Member who ceases to be a Member in accordance with clause 10.

10. CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

A Member’s Membership will cease:

(i) on the date that is one (1) month after the Company Secretary receives written notice of resignation from that Member;

(ii) upon that Member’s death;

(iii) if the Member is expelled pursuant to clause 11;

(iv) upon that Member no longer satisfying the criteria for its respective class of Membership (unless transferred to another class of Membership by the Board);

(v) with respect to TSANZ NZ, upon TSANZ NZ being wound up or dissolved;
(vi) if the Company in a general meeting resolves by a Special Resolution to terminate the Membership of a Member:

(A) who has refused or neglected to comply with a provision of the Constitution; or

(B) who has wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Company; or

(C) whose conduct or circumstances in the opinion of the Company renders it undesirable that that Member continue to be a Member of the Company.

(b) A Member may at any time, pursuant to clause 10(a)(i), resign as a Member, but shall continue to be liable for:

(i) any Subscription and all arrears due and unpaid at the date of resignation;

(ii) all other monies due by the Member to the Company at the date of resignation;

(iii) any sum for which the Member is liable as a Member of the Company under clause 2(b); and

(iv) if applicable, the Member’s Guarantee Amount.

11. DISCIPLINING OF MEMBERS

11.1 Disciplining of Members

(a) Where the Board is of the opinion that a Member has:

(i) persistently refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of this Constitution; or

(ii) persistently and wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Company;

the Board may:

(iii) expel the Member from the Company; or

(iv) suspend the Member from Membership of the Company for a specified period.

(b) A resolution of the Board pursuant to clause 11.1(a) will be of no effect unless the Board confirms the resolution in accordance with this clause at a Board meeting held not earlier than fourteen (14) days and not later than twenty eight (28) days after the service on the Member of notice under clause 11.1(c), unless another time has been agreed pursuant to clause 11.1(c)(ii).

(c) If the Board resolves under clause 11.1(a) to expel or suspend any Member, the Company Secretary must serve the Member with a notice in writing:

(i) setting out the resolution of the Board and the grounds upon which it is based;

(ii) stating that the Member may address the Board at a meeting to be held not earlier than fourteen (14) days and not later than twenty eight (28) days after service of the notice, unless otherwise agreed between the Member and the Board;

(iii) stating the date, place and time of that meeting; and

(iv) informing the Member that the Member may do either or both of the following:

(A) attend and speak at that meeting;

(B) submit to the Board at or prior to the date of that meeting written representations relating to the resolution.

(d) At a meeting of the Board held in accordance with clause 11.1(c), the Board must:

(i) give the Member an opportunity to make oral representations;

(ii) give due consideration to any written representations submitted to the Board by the Member at or prior to the meeting; and

(iii) resolve whether to confirm or to revoke the decision to expel or suspend the Member.

(e) The Member must be notified in writing of the decision of the Board within seven (7) days. If the Board resolves to confirm the expulsion or suspension, the Member must also be notified of the right of appeal available under clause 11.2.

(f) A resolution confirmed by the Board under clause 11.1(d) does not take effect:
(i) until the expiration of the period within which the Member is entitled to appeal against the resolution; or

(ii) if the Member exercises the right of appeal, until the Company confirms the resolution pursuant to clause 11.2(d).

11.2 Right of Appeal of Disciplined Member

(a) A Member may appeal to the Company at a general meeting against a resolution of the Board, which is confirmed under clause 11.1(d). Written notice of such an appeal must be lodged with the Company Secretary within seven (7) days of service of the notice required under clause 11.1(e).

(b) Upon receipt of a notice of appeal the Company Secretary must convene a general meeting of the Company to be held within forty two (42) days after the date of receipt of the notice.

(c) At a general meeting of the Company convened under clause 11.2(b):

(i) no business other than the question of the appeal may be transacted;

(ii) the Board and the Member must be given the opportunity to state their respective cases orally or in the writing, or both; and

(iii) the Members Present must vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution will be confirmed.

(d) Confirmation of the resolution shall be by Special Resolution of those Members Present who are entitled to vote.

(e) The Member the subject of these disciplinary procedures is entitled to:

(i) subject to clause 11.2e(ii) bring a support person to any meeting with the Company, which meetings are being held pursuant to this clause 11; and

(ii) if the support person is legally qualified, the Member must notify the Company or the Board (as the case may be) at least five (5) business days before the meeting that the support person attending the meeting will be legally qualified.
(f) Natural justice will be applied during every disciplinary process under this clause 11, requiring the Company to act fairly, in good faith and without bias or conflict of interest when making its decision.

12. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES BETWEEN MEMBERS

(a) Disputes between Members (in their capacity as Members), including disputes relating to fundraising issues, shall be referred to the Board which must take steps to resolve the dispute.

(b) If a dispute so referred is not resolved to the satisfaction of any party to the dispute within thirty (30) days of its being referred, then that party may refer the dispute to mediation before a mediator appointed by mutual agreement of the parties.

(c) Failing agreement by the parties to the appointment of a mediator within fourteen (14) days of a party notifying the other party of its intention to refer the dispute to mediation, the appointment of the mediator shall be made by the President of the New South Wales Law Society.

(d) The costs of the mediator appointed pursuant to clause 12(b) or clause 12(c) (as the case may be) shall be shared equally between the Members party to the dispute.

(e) At least seven (7) days before a mediation session established by a mediator appointed pursuant to clause 12(b) or clause 12(c) (as the case may be) is to commence, the parties to the dispute are to exchange statements of the issues that are in dispute between them and supply copies to the mediator.

GENERAL MEETINGS

13. CONVENING OF GENERAL MEETINGS

(a) Any four (4) Directors may, whenever those Directors think fit, convene a general meeting of the Company.

(b) Members shall be entitled to require a general meeting to be convened:

(i) if the Company is required to comply with the provisions of the Corporations Act, in accordance with those provisions; or
(ii) if clause 13(b)(i) does not apply, if those Members hold at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at the general meeting.

(c) A general meeting of the Company may be convened at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Members a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting.

(d) In addition to any general meetings, the Company shall hold an annual scientific meeting to aid in fulfilling its Objects.

14. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETING

(a) Subject to consent to shorter notice being given in accordance with the Corporations Act (notwithstanding the application, if any, of section 111L of the Corporations Act), at least twenty-one (21) days’ notice of any general meeting must be given specifying:

(i) the place, day and hour of the meeting;

(ii) the general nature of any business to be transacted at the meeting;

(iii) if a Special Resolution is to be proposed, the details of and intention to propose it;

(iv) if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this; and

(v) any other information required by the Corporations Act.

(b) The accidental omission to give notice of any general meeting to or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive notice will not invalidate the proceedings at or any resolution passed at the meeting (unless a majority of the Members entitled to receive a notice did not receive such notice).

(c) Subject to clause 14(b), notice of every general meeting must be given in any manner authorised by this Constitution to:

(i) every Member, subject to clause 14(d);

(ii) every Director; and

(iii) the auditor for the time being of the Company (if any).
15. CANCELLATION OR POSTPONEMENT OF GENERAL MEETING

(a) Subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act (notwithstanding the application, if any, of section 111L of the Corporations Act) and this Constitution, the Board may cancel a general meeting of the Company:

(i) convened by the Board; or

(ii) which has been convened by a Member or Members upon receipt by the Company of a written notice withdrawing the requisition signed by that same Member or those same Members.

(b) The Board may postpone a general meeting or change the venue at which it is to be held. No business shall be transacted at any postponed meeting other than the business stated in the notice to the Members relating to the original meeting.

(c) Subject to clause 14(d), where any general meeting is cancelled or postponed or the venue for the same is changed:

(i) the Board must endeavour to notify in writing each person entitled to receive notice of the meeting of the cancellation, the change of venue or the postponement of the meeting by any means permitted by this Constitution and in the case of the postponement of a meeting, the new place, date and time for the meeting; and

(ii) any failure to notify in writing any person entitled to receive notice of the meeting or failure of a person to receive a written notice shall not affect the validity of the cancellation, the change of venue or the postponement of the meeting.
PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

16. QUORUM

(a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting unless there is a quorum of Members Present at all times during the meeting.

(b) Twenty (20) Members Present and entitled to vote constitute a quorum for all general meetings.

(c) If within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for holding a general meeting a quorum is not present:
   (i) the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved;
   (ii) in any other case:
      (A) it will stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day time and place as the Board may by notice to the Members appoint; and
      (B) if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

17. CHAIRMAN

(a) The President will be the Chairman for all general meetings.

(b) If the President is unable or unwilling to act or is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, then the following Officer will be Chairman in lieu of the President in the order of availability set out below:
   (i) President Elect or Past President (as the case may be);
   (ii) Treasurer.

(c) Where a general meeting is held and:
   (i) there is no Chairman (that is, neither the President nor any of the Officers listed in clause 17(b) are available); or
(ii) the Chairman (that is, the President or any of the Officers listed in clause 17(b)) is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or, if present, is unwilling to act as Chairman of the meeting; the other Directors present may choose another Director as Chairman of the meeting by two-thirds majority, or if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the nearest number to two-thirds. If no Director is so chosen, or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, the Members Present may choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

(d) The rulings of the Chairman of a general meeting on all matters relating to the order of business, procedure and conduct of the meeting shall be final and no motion of dissent from such rulings shall be accepted.

18. ADJOURNMENTS

(a) The Chairman of a general meeting at which a quorum is present:

(i) may adjourn a meeting with the consent of the meeting; and

(ii) must adjourn the meeting if the meeting so directs, to a time and place as determined.

(b) No business may be transacted at any adjourned general meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

(c) A resolution passed at a meeting resumed after an adjournment is passed on the day it was passed.

(d) It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment of a general meeting or of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting except if the meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, in which case notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of an original meeting.
19. DETERMINATION OF QUESTIONS

(a) At any general meeting a resolution to be considered at the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded by:

(i) the Chairman of the meeting; or

(ii) at least two (2) Members Present and entitled to vote on the resolution.

(b) Before a vote on a resolution is taken, the Chairman must inform the meeting whether any proxy votes have been received and how the proxy votes are to be cast.

(c) A declaration by the Chairman of the result of a vote on a resolution by a show of hands and an entry to that effect contained in the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, which has been signed by the Chairman of the meeting or the next succeeding meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

(d) All resolutions passed by the Members in accordance with this Constitution, and which do not breach the Corporations Act, will be binding on the Board and the Company.

20. POLLS

(a) A poll may be demanded:

(i) before a vote on a resolution is taken;

(ii) before the voting results on a show of hands are declared; or

(iii) immediately after the voting results on a show of hands are declared.

(b) If a poll is demanded it must be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman of the meeting directs subject to clause 20(e).

(c) The result of the poll shall be taken to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

(d) The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.
(e) A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or any question of adjournment of the meeting must be taken immediately.

(f) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

21. VOTING RIGHTS

A Voting Member has one (1) vote, both on a show of hands and a poll.

22. VOTING DISQUALIFICATION

No person other than a Voting Member shall be entitled to a vote at a general meeting.

23. OBJECTION TO QUALIFICATION TO VOTE

Any challenge as to the qualification of a person to vote at a general meeting or the validity of any vote tendered may only be raised at the meeting and must be determined by the Chairman, whose decision shall be final and conclusive and a vote allowed by the Chairman shall be valid for all purposes.

24. PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND AND MINORS

(a) A Voting Member:

(i) of unsound mind; or

(ii) whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health; or

(iii) who is a minor;

may vote whether on a show of hands or on a poll by that Voting Member’s committee or by such other person as properly has the management or guardianship of that Voting Member’s estate or by the public trustee (as the case may be) and the committee or other person or trustee may vote by proxy or representative.

(b) Any person having the right of management or guardianship of the person or estate in respect of a Voting Member as referred to in clause 24(a) must not exercise any of the rights conferred under that clause unless and until the person has provided to the Board satisfactory evidence of the appointment of the person accordingly.

25. CHAIRMAN'S CASTING VOTE

In the case of an equality of votes whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands is taken or at which the poll is demanded is entitled to a casting vote.

26. RIGHT OF NON-MEMBERS TO ATTEND GENERAL MEETING

(a) The Chairman of a general meeting may invite any person who is not a Member to attend and address a meeting.

(b) Any auditor of the Company shall be entitled to attend and address a general meeting.

PROXIES

27. RIGHT TO APPOINT PROXIES

(a) A Voting Member who is entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting of the Company may appoint a person as the Member’s proxy to attend and vote for the Member at the meeting.

(b) If a Voting Member appoints a proxy, the proxy is entitled to vote on a show of hands and on a poll.

28. APPOINTING A PROXY

28.1 Appointing a Proxy

The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing signed by the appointor or the appointor’s attorney duly authorised in writing.

28.2 Instrument of Proxy

(a) The instrument of proxy is valid if it contains the following information, or any additional information required by the Corporations Act (notwithstanding the application, if any, of section 111L of the Corporations Act):

(i) the name and address of the Voting Member (and the Representative, if applicable);
(ii) the name of the Company;

(iii) the proxy’s name or the name of the office of the proxy; and

(iv) the meetings at which the instrument of proxy may be used.

(b) An instrument of proxy may be expressed to be a standing appointment. An instrument of proxy for a specified meeting is only valid for that meeting and any postponement or adjournment of that meeting.

(c) An instrument of proxy shall not be treated as invalid merely because it does not specify all of the information required by clause 28.2(a).

(d) An instrument of proxy may be revoked at any time by notice in writing to the Company.

29. LODGMENT OF PROXIES

(a) An instrument appointing:

(i) a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or executed or a certified copy of that power or authority; or

(ii) an attorney to exercise a Voting Member’s or Representative’s voting rights at a general meeting or a certified copy of that power of attorney, must be deposited at the Office or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the general meeting not less than forty eight (48) hours (or such shorter period as the Board may allow) before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, and in default the instrument of proxy or the power of attorney will not be treated as valid.

(b) For the purposes of this clause 29, it will be sufficient that any document required to be lodged by a Member be received in legible form by facsimile at the place at which the document is required to be delivered by the Member and the document shall be regarded as received at the time the facsimile was received at that place.

(c) For the purposes of this clause 29, it will be sufficient that any document required to be lodged by a Member be received in legible form by email if the notice of meeting so permits at the address and in the form specified in the notice and the proxy shall be regarded as received at the time of the receipt of the email transmission by the Company.

30. VALIDITY OF PROXIES

(a) A vote exercised pursuant to an instrument of proxy, a power of attorney or other instrument of appointment is valid notwithstanding:

(i) the death or unsoundness of mind of the Voting Member;

(ii) the bankruptcy of the Voting Member;

(iii) the revocation of the instrument of proxy or the power of attorney or any instrument under which the instrument or the power was granted, if the Company has not received at its Office written notice of the death, unsoundness of mind, bankruptcy or revocation at least forty eight (48) hours (or such shorter period as the Board may allow) prior to the time appointed for the holding of the general meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which the instrument of proxy or the power of attorney is exercised.

(b) A proxy who is not entitled to vote on a resolution as a Voting Member, may vote as a proxy for another Voting Member who can vote if the appointment specifies the way the proxy is to vote on the resolution and the proxy votes that way.

31. RIGHTS OF PROXIES AND ATTORNEYS

(a) The instrument appointing a proxy will be taken to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

(b) Unless a Voting Member by the instrument of proxy directs the proxy to vote in a certain manner, the proxy may vote as the proxy thinks fit on any motion or resolution. Otherwise the proxy shall follow the voting instructions contained in the instrument of proxy.

(c) A proxy will not be revoked by the appointor attending and taking part in any general meeting, but if the appointor votes on a resolution either on a show of hands or on a poll, the person acting as proxy for the appointor shall not be entitled to vote in that capacity in respect of the resolution.

(d) The Chairman of a general meeting may require any person acting as a proxy to establish to the satisfaction of the Chairman that he or she is the person nominated as proxy in the form of proxy lodged under this Constitution. If the person is unable to establish his or her identity, he or she may be excluded from voting either upon a show of hands or upon a poll.

APPPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

32. NUMBER AND APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

32.1 Number of Directors

(a) The Board shall consist of no less than six (6) persons and no more than twelve (12) persons.

(b) The Board may by resolution vary the maximum number of Directors from that referred to in clause 32.1(a).

32.2 Constitution of Board

(a) The Board shall consist of the following:
   (i) the President;
   (ii) the Past President or President Elect, as the case may be;
   (iii) the Branch Director;
   (iv) the New Zealand Director; and
   (v) eight (8) Member Elected Directors.

(b) The following additional Directors may also be elected or appointed to the Board from time to time:
    (i) Co-Opted Directors; and
    (ii) Affiliate Directors.

(c) With the exception of Co-Opted Directors and Affiliate Directors, a Director must be a Voting Member at all times that he or she is holding office as a Director.
32.3 President Elect

(a) Prior to a Director being eligible to be appointed as the President, that Director shall be required to have served a one (1) year term as President Elect immediately prior to assuming office as the President;

(b) one (1) year before the expiry of the term of any President, the Members shall, in accordance with clause 32.15, elect a Voting Member to the office of President Elect;

(c) for the purposes of clause 32.15(a)(i), the minimum number of other Voting Members required to nominate a candidate for election as President Elect, is ten (10); and

(d) the President Elect shall hold the office of President Elect for a term of one (1) year.

32.4 President

(a) The President Elect shall, on the expiry of his or her one (1) year term, by default assume the position of President.

(b) The President shall hold the office of President for a term of two (2) years.

32.5 Past President

(a) Upon retiring as the President, that Director by default immediately becomes the Past President.

(b) The Past President shall have a term of one (1) year as Past President.

(c) The Past President is not eligible for re-election to the position of President Elect on or ever after the expiry of that one (1) year term.

32.6 Branch Director

(a) For the purposes of this clause 32.6, the term “Branch Presidents” shall not include a reference to the New Zealand Branch President.

(b) The Branch Presidents will appoint one (1) of their number to the office of Branch Director. Prior to the Company’s annual general meeting, the Company Secretary shall call for nominations from the Branch Presidents for election to the office of Branch Director. Where more than one (1) Branch President is nominated, the Company Secretary shall hold, amongst the Branch Presidents, a secret ballot immediately after the annual general meeting. The Branch President with the most votes shall be appointed Branch Director.

(c) Subject to clause 32.6(d), the Branch Director shall hold the office of Branch Director for a term of one (1) year, but shall be eligible for reappointment for a further three (3) terms of one (1) year each. A Branch Director shall not hold office for more than four (4) consecutive years.

(d) Subject to clause 34(b)(ii), upon the Branch Director, who has been appointed to the Board pursuant to clause 32.6(b) no longer being a Branch President during his or her term as the Branch Director, that Director will continue to hold office as Branch Director until the next annual general meeting (being the conclusion of their term as Branch Director), at which time clause 32.6(b) will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, a Branch Director who ceases to be a Branch President may not hold office as a Branch Director beyond the conclusion of their current term and will not be eligible for reappointment as a Branch Director, unless they are a Branch President.

32.7 New Zealand Director

(a) The New Zealand Branch President will, by virtue of that office, automatically be appointed to the Board as the New Zealand Director.

(b) Upon a Director, who has been appointed to the Board pursuant to clause 32.7(a), no longer being the New Zealand Branch President, that Director will vacate his or her office on the Board and the new New Zealand Branch President will be appointed to that vacant office as Director by virtue of being appointed the New Zealand Branch President.

32.8 Member Elected Directors

(a) The eight (8) Member Elected Directors referred to in clause 32.2(a)(v) shall be elected in accordance with clause 32.15.

(b) For the purposes of clause 32.15(a)(i), the minimum number of other Voting Members required to nominate a candidate for election as Member Elected Director is two (2).

(c) Each Member Elected Director shall hold the office of Member Elected Director for a term of two (2) years, but shall be eligible for re-election for a further term of two (2) years. Member Elected Directors shall not hold office of Member Elected Director for more than four (4) consecutive years. (For the avoidance of doubt, the person holding office as Member Elected Director would be eligible to hold another office on the Board upon the expiry of his or her term as a Member Elected Director.

32.9 Other Office Holders

The Board shall, at the first meeting of the Board held after the annual general meeting, appoint from amongst the Member Elected Directors sitting on the Board at that time:

(a) a Board Secretary;

(b) a Treasurer; and

(c) a Standing Sub-Committee Director for each Standing Sub-Committee in existence at the time of the first meeting of the Board after the annual general meeting, up to a maximum of six (6).

32.10 Board Secretary

(a) The Board Secretary shall hold the office of Board Secretary for a term of two (2) years, but shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further term of two (2) years (where the Board Secretary has been re-elected as a Member Elected Director). The Board Secretary shall not hold office of Board Secretary for more than four (4) consecutive years. (For the avoidance of doubt, the person holding office as Board Secretary would be eligible to hold another office on the Board upon the expiry of his or her term as Board Secretary.)

(b) The Board Secretary is eligible for re-election to the position of Treasurer on the expiry of two (2) years after they last held office as Board Secretary.

(c) The Board Secretary will have any other responsibilities as are delegated to him or her by the Board from time to time, provided such delegation of responsibility does not conflict with the responsibilities and duties of the Company Secretary.

32.11 Treasurer

(a) The Treasurer shall hold the office of Treasurer for a term of two (2) years, but shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further term of two (2) years (where the Treasurer has been re-elected as a Member Elected Director). The Treasurer shall not hold office of Treasurer for more than four (4) consecutive years. (For the avoidance of doubt, the person holding office as Treasurer would be eligible to hold another office on the Board upon the expiry of his or her term as Treasurer.)
(b) The Treasurer is eligible for re-election to the position of Treasurer on the expiry of two (2) years after they last held office as Treasurer.

(c) The Treasurer will be responsible to the Board and to the Members for ensuring that all the financial details of the Company are presented to the Board, and the Treasurer will present such data at each annual general meeting.

32.12 Standing Sub-Committee Directors

(a) Each Standing Sub-Committee Director will, by virtue of being the Standing Sub-Committee Director, be the Standing Sub-Committee Chair of the Standing Sub-Committee to which it has been appointed to by the Board.

(b) Standing Sub-Committee Directors shall hold office for a term of two (2) years, but shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further term of two (2) years (where that Standing Sub-Committee Director has been re-elected as a Member Elected Director). Each Standing Sub-Committee Director shall not hold that office for more than four (4) consecutive years. (For the avoidance of doubt, the person holding office as a Standing Sub-Committee Director would be eligible to hold another office on the Board upon the expiry of his or her term as Standing Sub-Committee Director.)

(c) Standing Sub-Committee Directors are eligible for re-election to the position of Standing Sub-Committee Director on the expiry of two (2) years after they last held office as Standing Sub-Committee Director.

(d) In addition to the Standing Sub-Committee Chair, following a nomination by the relevant Standing Sub-Committee, the Board may in its discretion determine to appoint a Member (who may be, but need not be, a Director or Standing Sub-Committee Director) as Standing Sub-Committee Co-Chair to a Standing Sub-Committee. Such Standing Sub-Committee Co-Chair shall hold office for a term of (2) years and any eligibility for reappointment beyond that time shall be in the Board’s sole discretion.

(e) The Standing Sub-Committee Directors (and any Standing Sub-Committee Co-Chairs) will have the immediate responsibility to the Board for the management of the Standing Sub-Committee of which it is the Standing Sub-Committee Chair (or Standing Sub-Committee Co-Chair).

(f) Where there are more than six (6) Standing Sub-Committees in existence at any one time, the Board may, in its absolute discretion, allocate the responsibility for the management of the additional Standing Sub-Committees to any Director, including a Standing Sub-Committee Director. For the avoidance of doubt, a Standing Sub-Committee Director (or any other Director) may be allocated the responsibility for (and by virtue of that role, be appointed the Standing Sub-Committee Chair of) more than one (1) Standing Sub-Committee.

32.13 Co-Opted Directors

(a) The Board can appoint up to four (4) Co-Opted Directors to the Board.

(b) A Co-Opted Director shall be a person who will bring skills and experience to the Board to enable the Board to advance the Objects.

(c) Each Co-Opted Director shall hold the office of Co-Opted Director for a maximum term of one (1) year and is eligible for re-appointment for a further term of one (1) year. Co-Opted Directors shall not hold office for more than two (2) consecutive years.

32.14 Affiliate Directors

(a) Affiliated Organisations shall be permitted to appoint a representative of the Affiliated Organisation to the Board, where the Company and the Affiliated Organisation have entered into an agreement which allows such an appointment.

(b) The term of office and eligibility requirements for Affiliate Directors shall be as stated in the relevant affiliation agreement.

32.15 Election of Directors

(a) Nomination of candidates for election as President Elect and Member Elected Director:

   (i) must be made in writing in the form prescribed by the Board from time to time, signed by the requisite number of other Members (as stipulated by this Constitution) and accompanied by written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of the nomination); and

   (ii) must be delivered to the Company Secretary at least twenty one (21) days before the date fixed for the holding of the election.

(b) The Board shall cause an election to be held for the election of candidates as the Directors referred to in clause 32.15(a) prior to an annual general meeting or at an annual general meeting in whatever manner and upon whichever date the Board shall decide, which may include an electronic ballot..

(c) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies of Directors (referred to in clause 32.15(a)) on the Board, the candidates nominated shall be deemed to be elected and further nominations for the vacant positions shall be received at the annual general meeting or, in the case of an electronic election, at the annual general meeting following the electronic election.

(d) If insufficient further nominations are received, any vacant positions of Directors remaining on the Board shall be deemed to be casual vacancies.

(e) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies of Directors (referred to in clause 32.15(a)) to be filled, the persons nominated shall be deemed to be elected.

(f) If the number of nominations received for Directors (referred to in clause 32.15(a)) exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot shall be held. The Board shall determine, in its discretion, how and when the ballot shall be conducted.

33. GENERAL RIGHT TO APPOINT AND REMOVE DIRECTORS

(a) Subject to the Corporations Act (notwithstanding the application, if any, of section 111L of the Corporations Act):

(i) if there is ever a casual vacancy in the office of President, the President Elect or Past President, as the case may be, will fill such casual vacancy, and hold office for the balance of the term of the vacating President, and where the person filling the casual vacancy is the President Elect, shall continue to hold office for the full term that the President Elect would have held office as President if the original President had not vacated;

(ii) if there is ever a casual vacancy in the office of President Elect, that office shall remain vacant for the balance of the term of the vacating President Elect. At the next annual general meeting of the Company, the Voting Members shall, in accordance with clause 32.15, elect a Voting Member to the office of President. For the purposes of clause 32.15(a)(i), the minimum number of other Voting Members required to nominate a candidate for election as President, is ten (10);

(iii) if there is ever a casual vacancy in the office of Past President, that office shall remain vacant for the balance of the term of the vacating Past President;

(iv) if there is ever a casual vacancy in the office of Member Elected Director, the Board may appoint a Voting Member to fill any such casual vacancy. Any Director so appointed shall only hold office until the next annual general meeting of the Company after the appointment is made.

(b) The Board may act despite any vacancy in their body, but if the number falls below the minimum required by the Corporations Act, the Board may act:

(i) for the purpose of:

(A) increasing the number of Directors to the minimum; or

(B) convening a general meeting; or

(ii) in emergencies;

but for no other purpose.

34. VACATION OF OFFICE

(a) Any Director may retire from office on giving written notice to the Company at the Office of his or her intention to retire and the resignation shall take effect at the time expressed in the notice (provided the time is not earlier than the date of delivery of the written notice to the Company).

(b) The office of a Director shall become vacant if the Director:

(i) dies;

(ii) subject to clause 32.2(c), ceases to be a Voting
Member of the Company;

(iii) is a health care professional who has been deregistered;

(iv) becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with creditors generally;
(v) becomes prohibited from being a director of, or managing, a company by reason of any order made under the Corporations Act;

(vi) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose personal estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health;

(vii) resigns by notice in writing to the Company;

(viii) subject to clause 32.6(d), being a Branch Director, is no longer a Branch President;

(ix) being the New Zealand Director, is no longer the New Zealand Branch President; or

(x) has been disqualified by the ACNC Commissioner, at any time during the preceding twelve (12) months, from being a responsible entity of a registered entity under section 42.20(4) of the ACNC Regulation; or

(xi) is absent without permission of the Board from meetings of the Board held for more than six (6) consecutive months.

35. ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

Alternate Directors shall not be permitted.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

36. DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

(a) Each Director is subject to, and must comply at all times with, the duties set out in Governance Standard 5 in section 45.25 of the ACNC Regulation if the Company is legally required to comply with that regulation.

(b) In accordance with Governance Standard 4 in section 45.20 of the ACNC Regulation, the Board will take reasonable steps to ensure that the Board does not at any time include a Director who is disqualified from managing a corporation under the Corporations Act or from being a responsible entity under subsection 45.20(4) of the ACNC Regulation.
37. POWERS OF DIRECTORS

The control, ultimate management and conduct of the Company shall be vested in the Board who shall exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Corporations Act, the ACNC Act or by this Constitution required to be exercised in any other manner.

38. NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS

All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for money paid to the Company must be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed as the case may be by:

(a) a Director so authorised in writing by the Board; and

(b) one other Director or the Company Secretary, so authorised in writing by the Board.

39. CONFERMENT OF POWERS

(a) The Board may from time to time confer upon any Director for the time being, or any other person as they may select, such of the powers exercisable under this Constitution by the Board as it may think fit for such time and to be exercised for such purposes and on such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as it may think expedient.

(b) Powers conferred under this clause 39 may be exercised concurrently with the powers of the Board in that regard and the Board may from time to time withdraw, revoke or vary all or any of such powers.

DIRECTORS’ DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST

40. CONTRACTS

(a) The Company may enter into contracts or arrangements with other companies or bodies in which a Director has an interest, provided it does so according to the usual commercial terms and conditions that apply to such contracts or arrangements.

(b) Any interest of a Director must be dealt with in accordance with the relevant legislation, being either:
(i) the Corporations Act; or

(ii) the ACNC Regulation, which shall include disclosing an interest and having the Company Secretary record all declarations in the minutes of the relevant meeting.

(c) Subject to clause 40(b) a Director who has an interest in a contract or arrangement made by the Company and has disclosed this interest to the Board:

(i) cannot be present while the matter is being considered at a meeting;

(ii) cannot vote on the matter;

(iii) may still be counted in determining whether or not a quorum is present at any meeting of Directors considering that contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement;

(iv) cannot sign or countersign any document relating to that contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement; and

(v) cannot vote in respect of, or in respect of any matter arising out of, the contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement.

(d) A Director’s failure to make disclosure under this clause 40 does not render void or voidable a contract or arrangement in which the Director has a direct or indirect interest.

(e) A general notice given to the Board by a Director that the Director is an officer, a member of or otherwise interested in any specified corporation or firm stating the nature and the extent of the Director’s interest in the corporation or firm shall, in relation to any matter involving the Company and that corporation or firm after the giving of the notice, be a sufficient disclosure of the Director’s interest, provided that the extent of the interest is no greater at the time of first consideration of the relevant matter by the Board than was stated in the notice.
PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

41. MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

(a) The Board may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings as it thinks fit, provided that they shall meet together not less than four (4) times each calendar year.

(b) (i) Three (3) Directors may at any time; or

(ii) the Company Secretary upon the request of any three (3) Directors shall; convene a meeting of the Board by giving at least two (2) weeks notice of the meeting to all Directors (except in the case of an emergency where less notice shall be satisfactory), except a Director who the person convening the meeting reasonably believes to be outside Australia or New Zealand.

(c) Notice of a meeting of the Board need not be in writing.

(d) A Board meeting may be convened or held using any technology consented to by all Directors. The consent may be a standing one. A Director may withdraw consent to the use of a particular technology within a reasonable time period before a Board meeting.

(e) All resolutions of the Directors passed at a meeting of the Board where a quorum is present but where notice of the meeting has not been given as required to each Director, or any act carried out pursuant to such resolution, shall, provided each Director to whom notice was not given subsequently agrees to waive the same, be as valid as if notice of the meeting had been duly given to all Directors.

42. QUORUM

(a) A majority of Directors entitled to attend a meeting of the Board who are personally present (or in conference in accordance with clause 41) (providing the number is six (6) or greater) form a quorum and a quorum must be present at all times during the meeting.

(b) A Director who is disqualified from voting on a matter pursuant to clause 40 shall be counted in the quorum despite that disqualification.
43. CHAIRMAN

(a) The President shall, if present, preside as Chairman of every meeting of the Board.

(b) If a meeting of the Board is held and the President is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or, if present, does not wish to chair the meeting, then the:

(i) President Elect or Past President, as the case may be, shall; or

(ii) failing him or her, the Board Secretary shall; or

(iii) failing him or her, the Treasurer shall; or

(iv) failing him or her, the other Directors present must elect one of their number to;

be Chairman of the meeting.

44. VOTING

(a) A resolution of the Board must be passed by a majority of votes of the Directors present at the meeting who vote on the resolution. A resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast by the Directors will for all purposes be taken to be a determination of the Board.

(b) Each Director shall have one (1) vote.

(c) In case of an equality of votes at a meeting of the Board, the President has a casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

45. RESOLUTIONS BY DIRECTORS

(a) The Board may pass a resolution without a Board meeting being held if all the Directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document. For this purpose, signatures can be contained in more than one document.

(b) A facsimile transmission which is received by the Company and which purports to have been signed by a Director shall, for the purposes of this clause 45, be taken to be in writing and signed by that Director at the time of the receipt of the facsimile transmission by the Company in legible form.

(c) An email transmission which is received by the Company and which purports to have been sent by a Director shall, for the purposes of this clause 45, be taken to be in writing and signed by that Director at the time of the receipt of the email transmission by the Company.

(d) Where a resolution is passed in accordance with this clause 45, the Board must ensure that it complies with the provisions of clause 48, causing minutes to be kept of such resolutions.

46. COMMITTEE OF DIRECTORS

46.1 Standing Sub-Committees

(a) The Board may form Standing Sub-Committees from time to time.

(b) As at the date of adoption of this Constitution in 2015, there are seven (7) Standing Sub-Committees being:

(i) Finance Risk and Audit;

(ii) Strategy and Management;

(iii) Clinical Care and Resources;

(iv) Education and Training;

(v) Research;

(vi) Professional Standards; and

(vii) TSANZSRS Conference.

(c) The purpose of the Standing Sub-Committees is to advise the Board of the needs, strategies and actions required to realise the Objects and address specific issues of the Company.

(d) Each of the Standing Sub-Committees will consist of:

(i) one (1) Standing Sub-Committee Chair being the Standing Sub-Committee Director of that Standing Sub-Committee pursuant to clause 32.13(a);

(ii) no less than four (4) other Voting Members appointed by the Board, who shall hold office for a term of two (2) years and who can be reappointed for a further term of two (2) years; and

(iii) from time to time, one (1) Standing Sub-Committee Co-Chair appointed by the Board pursuant to clause 32.12(d).

(e) With the exception of the Standing Sub-Committee Chair referred to in clause 46.1(d)(i) the Board will call for nominations from Voting Members for appointment to the Standing Sub-Committees. The Board will decide, in its absolute discretion, as to those Voting Members who will be appointed to the Standing Sub-Committees.

(f) The Board shall determine how the meetings and proceedings of any Standing Sub-Committee shall operate, be governed and regulated.

(g) The Board has the power to disband or reconstitute any Standing Sub-Committee at any time within its full discretion.

46.2 Other Committees

(a) The Board may form and delegate any of its powers to any other Committee (or task force) consisting of such Directors and/or other persons as it thinks fit and may from time to time revoke such delegation.

(b) The Board will decide, in its absolute discretion, as to those Voting Members and/or other persons who will be appointed to such other Committees (or task forces) and the term of their appointment.

(c) The Board shall determine how the meetings and proceedings of any other such Committee (or task force) shall operate, be governed and regulated.

47. VALIDATION OF ACTS OF DIRECTORS

All acts done:

(a) at any meeting of the Board; or

(b) by any person acting as a Director, shall, even if it is discovered afterwards that there was a defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such Director or person or that they or any of them were disqualified or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had continued in office and was duly qualified to be a Director and had been entitled to vote.

MINUTES

48. MINUTES

(a) The Board must cause minutes to be kept in such a manner as is required by the Corporations Act (notwithstanding the application, if any, of section 111L of the Corporations Act) for the purposes of recording:

(i) the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Board and of Directors present at each meeting of any Committee and any Standing Sub-Committee;

(ii) all orders, resolutions and proceedings of general meetings and of meetings of the Board and of Committees and Standing Sub-Committees;

(iii) such matters as are required by the Corporations Act (notwithstanding the application, if any, of section 111L of the Corporations Act) or the ACNC Act or the ACNC Regulation to be recorded in the record books of the Company including, without limitation, all declarations made or notices given by any Director of his or her interest in any contract or proposed contract or the holding of any office or property whereby any conflict of duty or interest may arise.

(b) Such minutes shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting, or the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting and minutes which purport to be signed accordingly shall be received in evidence without any further proof as sufficient evidence that the matters and things recorded by such minutes actually took place or happened as recorded and of the regularity of such matters and things and that the same took place at a meeting duly convened and held.

COMPANY SECRETARY

49. APPOINTMENT AND TENURE

(a) There must be at least one Company Secretary (who is the Company Secretary for the purposes of the Corporations Act) appointed by the Board for a term and on conditions determined by the Board.

(b) The Board may remove any Company Secretary so appointed.
BRANCHES

50. BRANCHES

(a) The Members are grouped into Branches.

(b) The Board may in its discretion authorise the formation of additional Branches and grant to it the right to be and to function as such so long as the Board deems fit.

(c) Subject to clause 50(e), a Branch shall conduct its affairs and programmes in accordance with this Constitution, the By-Laws and such other directions and limitations declared by the Board from time to time.

(d) The Board shall have the power to amend the By-Laws and, subject to clause 50(e):

   (i) define the powers and responsibilities of; and

   (ii) exercise control over;

the Branches.

With the exception of the New Zealand Branch (whilstever it is incorporated as a separate legal entity in New Zealand), this shall include the right to take over the management and control of a Branch Executive, where that Branch is not complying with clause 50(c), until:

   (iii) such time as the Branch is able to comply with clause 50(c); or

   (iv) the next annual general meeting of the Branch where a new Branch Executive can be elected.

(e) (i) The Board acknowledges that the New Zealand Branch is incorporated as a separate legal entity in New Zealand. The New Zealand Branch must ensure that its constituent document conforms, as closely as reasonably practicable and as far as the law in New Zealand allows, with the Constitution and the By-Laws. The New Zealand Branch must obtain the written approval of the Board to its constituent document which approval will not be unreasonably withheld. In the event that the Board approves the constituent document of the New Zealand Branch, the New Zealand Branch will not have to comply with the By-Laws to the extent that there is any inconsistency between the constituent document and the By-Laws.
(ii) In the event that the Board does not approve the constituent document in accordance with clause 50(e)(i), the Members who are members of the New Zealand Branch will use their best endeavours to convene a meeting of members of the New Zealand Branch with a view to amending the contravening provision(s) of the constituent document of the New Zealand Branch.

(f) With the exception of the New Zealand Branch President (who by virtue of that office is a member of the Board), the Board shall meet with the Branch Presidents of all Branches on an annual basis.

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

51. SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

(a) The Board will form Special Interest Groups of the size, type and nature as it deems fit from time to time.

(b) The purposes of the Special Interest Groups are to:

(i) foster research collaboration, educational activities and exchange of information among physicians, health care workers, scientists and those in training within a defined area of interest; and

(ii) assist the Board in achieving its Objects.

(c) A Special Interest Group shall conduct its affairs and programmes in accordance with this Constitution, the By-Laws and such other directions and limitations declared by the Board from time to time.

(d) The Board shall have the power to amend the By-Laws and define the powers and responsibilities of and otherwise exercise control over the Special Interest Groups.

(e) A Special Interest Group shall cease to be a Special Interest Group at any time that the Board in its discretion withdraws the authority upon which it was established.

EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

52. EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

(a) Without limiting the manner in which the Company may execute any contract, including as permitted under section
126 of the Corporations Act, the Company may execute any agreement, deed or other document by:

(i) two Directors signing the same; or

(ii) one Director and one Company Secretary signing the same.

(b) Nothing in this Constitution requires the Company to execute any agreement, deed or other document under common seal for the same to be effectively executed by the Company.

ACCOUNTS AND INSPECTION OF RECORDS

53. ACCOUNTS AND INSPECTION

(a) The Board shall:

(i) cause proper financial records to be kept and must (if required by the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act or the ACNC Regulation) prepare and distribute copies of the financial reports of the Company and a Directors’ report; and

(ii) from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounting and other records of the Company or any of them will be open to the inspection of Members.

(b) The Company will, where required:

(i) comply with the reporting (financial and otherwise) and auditing or reviewing requirements of the Corporations Act; and

(ii) the reporting (financial and otherwise) and auditing or reviewing requirements of the ACNC Act.

NOTICES

54. SERVICE OF NOTICES

(a) A notice may be given by the Company to any Member by:

(i) serving it on the Member personally;
(ii) sending it by post to the Member or leaving it at the Member’s address shown in the Register or otherwise the address supplied by the Member to the Company for the giving of notices;

(iii) facsimile to the facsimile number supplied by the Member to the Company for the giving of notices; or

(iv) sending it to the electronic address supplied by the Member to the Company for the giving of notices.

(b) Any Member who has not left at or sent to the Office his or her place of address for inclusion in the Register as the place at which notices may be given to the Member shall not be entitled to receive any notice.

(c) Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be taken to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice and shall be deemed to have been effected on the day after the date of posting. Service of a notice to a Member outside Australia shall be deemed to have been made in the ordinary course of the post.

(d) Where a notice is sent by facsimile or other electronic means, service of the notice shall be taken to be effected by properly addressing and sending the notice and in such case shall be taken to have been effected on the business day after it is sent.

(e) A notice may be given by the Company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death, lunacy or bankruptcy of a Member by:

(i) service on the Member personally;

(ii) sending it by post addressed to the person by name or by the title of the representative of the deceased or lunatic or the assignee of the bankrupt or by any like description at the address, if any, within Australia supplied for the purpose by the person claiming to be entitled;

(iii) by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death, lunacy or bankruptcy had not occurred.

(f) Evidence of service of a notice may be established by proving that the envelope containing the notice and stamped appropriately was properly posted and a certificate given by any Officer of the Company to that effect shall be conclusive evidence of service.
55. NOTICES OF GENERAL MEETING

Subject to clause 54(b), notice of every general meeting must be given in any manner authorised by this Constitution to:

(a) every Member; and

(b) the auditor for the time being (if any) of the Company.

56. WINDING UP

(a) If any surplus remains following the winding up of the Company, the surplus will not be paid to or distributed amongst Members, but all remaining gifts, deductible contributions and any money received in respect of such gifts and contributions will be given or transferred to another institution or corporation which:

(i) has objects which are similar to the objects of the Company as set out in clause 5.1;

(ii) has a constitution which requires its income and property to be applied in promoting its objects;

(iii) has a constitution which prohibits it from paying or distributing its income and property amongst its Members to an extent at least as great as imposed on the Company by clause 5.2(b); and

(iv) is endorsed as a DGR.

(b) If any surplus remains following the transfer pursuant to clause 56(a), the surplus will not be paid to or distributed amongst Members, but will be given or transferred to another institution or corporation which:

(i) has objects which are similar to the objects of the Company as set out in clause 5.1;

(ii) has a constitution which requires its income and property to be applied in promoting its objects; and

(iii) has a constitution which prohibits it from paying or distributing its income and property amongst its Members to an extent at least as great as imposed on the Company by clause 5.2(b).
(c) The identity of the corporation(s) or institution(s) referred to in clauses 56(a) and 56(b) are to be determined by the Members in writing at or before the time of dissolution and failing such determination being made, by application to the Supreme Court for determination.

(d) In the event that the Company ever has its endorsement as a DGR revoked, the Company must transfer all remaining gifts, deductible contributions and any money received in respect of such gifts and contributions to another DGR, such DGR to be determined by the Members and failing such determination being made, by application to the Supreme Court for determination.

INDEMNITY

57. INDEMNITY

57.1 General Indemnity
To the extent permitted by law every Officer (and former Officer) of the Company shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Company against all costs, expenses and liabilities incurred as such an Officer or employee (or former Officer or employee). However, no such Officer (or former Officer) shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Company under this clause:

(a) if it is in respect of a liability to another person (other than the Company or a related body corporate to the Company) where the liability to the other person arises out of conduct involving a lack of good faith; or

(b) if it is in respect of a liability for costs and expenses incurred:

   (i) in defending proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is not given in favour of the Officer (or former Officer) or in which the Officer (or former Officer) is not acquitted; or

   (ii) in connection with an application, in relation to such proceedings, in which the court does not grant relief to the Officer (or former Officer) under the Corporations Act.

57.2 Deed of Indemnity
At the request of a Director, the Company will enter into a deed of indemnity with that Director:
(a) which will provide the Director with a continuing indemnity by the Company following the vacation of office by that Director for a period of time to be agreed upon; and

(b) otherwise upon terms and conditions reasonably acceptable to both the Company and that Director.

58. PAYMENT OF INDEMNITY POLICY PREMIUM

(a) To the extent permitted by law the Company may at the discretion of the Board enter into and/or pay a premium in respect of a policy of insurance insuring an Officer (or former Officer) of the Company against any liability incurred by such person in that capacity (whether in respect of acts or omissions prior to or after the date of the issue of the policy or both) except for:

(i) a liability arising out of conduct involving a wilful breach of duty in relation to the Company; or

(ii) if the Company is not a Charity, a contravention of sections 182 or 183 of the Corporations Act.

(b) The Board shall have the discretion to approve the terms and conditions of any such policy of insurance.

(c) Where an Officer (or former Officer) has the benefit of an indemnity pursuant to an insurance policy in respect of his or her actions or omissions then the Company shall not be required to indemnify the Officer under clause 57 except to the extent that the indemnity affected by the insurance policy does not fully cover the person’s liability.

59. INDEMNITY TO CONTINUE

The indemnity granted by the Company contained in clauses 57 and 58 shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the deletion or modification of that clause, in respect of acts and omissions occurring prior to the date of the deletion or modification.

MEMBERSHIP

2. ADDITIONAL CLASSES OF MEMBERSHIP

2.1 Not Currently in Paid Employment Members

(a) Pursuant to clause 6.4(i) of the Constitution, there shall be an additional class of Membership being Not Currently in Paid Employment Members.

(b) A Not Currently in Paid Employment Member is a person whom the Board determines should continue to be a Member of the Company, and who:

(i) was previously an Ordinary Member, Student Member or Associate Member of the Company; and

(ii) is ineligible to continue in their previous class of Membership due to the fact that they are not currently in paid employment, including because they are unemployed, retired or on extended leave; and

(iii) were it not for By-Law Schedule 12.1(b)(ii) would still be eligible to continue in their previous class of Membership.

(c) A Not Currently in Paid Employment Member is a Non-voting Member.

(d) A Not Currently in Paid Employment Member is not eligible to access any awards or scholarships, including research awards, given by the Company from time to time.

BRANCHES

3. BRANCH MEMBERSHIP

3.1 Membership

A Branch shall have not less than ten (10) Branch Members.

3.2 Individual Members

Branch Membership shall be open to any Member, except insofar as the Board in its discretion prescribes geographical or other limits in respect of the area or constituency from which Branch Members shall be drawn.
3.3 Cessation of Membership

A Branch Member shall cease to be a Branch Member:

(a) if he or she ceases to be a Member of the Company;

(b) if he or she shall move out of the geographical area (or no longer satisfies any other limits in respect of the area of constituency from which Branch Members are drawn) of the Branch, determined by the Company from time to time.

4. BRANCH EXECUTIVE

4.1 Members of Branch Executive

(a) The affairs of the Branch shall be managed by the Branch Executive of at least six (6) Branch Members, or any other number of Branch Members as the Board determines necessary.

(b) The term of office of each member of the Branch Executive shall commence and conclude on the date of the relevant Branch Annual Meeting.

4.2 Election Terms

(a) From the date of registration of the Company until the first Branch Annual Meeting, the Branch Executive shall consist of those persons who were members of the Branch Executive of the relevant Branch of the Association immediately before the registration of the Company.

(b) At the first Branch Annual Meeting following the registration of the Company all positions as members of the Branch Executive shall be declared vacant and nominations shall be called for the election of members of the Branch Executive as provided in By-Law 4.5.

4.3 Election of Branch Office Bearers

(a) The Branch Executive shall consist of:

(i) the Branch President;

(ii) the Branch Past President or Branch President Elect, as the case may be;

(iii) the Branch Secretary;

(iv) the Branch Treasurer; and
(v) at least two (2) Ordinary Branch Executive Members unless otherwise determined by the Board pursuant to By-Law 4.1.

(b) Branch President Elect

(i) Prior to a Branch Member being appointed as the Branch President, that Branch Member shall be required to have served a one (1) year term as Branch President Elect immediately prior to assuming office as the Branch President.

(ii) One (1) year before the expiry of the term of any Branch President, the Branch Members, in accordance with By-Law 4.5, elect from among their number a Branch President Elect.

(iii) The Branch President Elect shall hold the office of Branch President Elect for a term of one (1) year.

(iv) The initial Branch President Elect shall hold office from the conclusion of the first Branch Annual Meeting until the conclusion of the second Branch Annual Meeting.

(c) Branch President

(i) The Branch President Elect shall, on the expiry of his or her one (1) year term, by default assume the position of Branch President.

(ii) The Branch President shall hold the office of Branch President for a term of two (2) years.

(iii) The Branch President must meet with the Branch Presidents of all other Branches:

(A) (with the exception of the New Zealand Branch President) to appoint one (1) of their number to the office of Branch Director, in accordance with clause 32.6(b) of the Constitution; and

(B) on at least one (1) other occasion, using technology that gives the Branch Presidents a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting, to share issues pertaining to the Branches and to ensure that the Branch Director is well informed and aware of all such issues.
(iv) With the exception of the New Zealand Branch President (who by virtue of that office is a member of the Board), the Branch Presidents of all of the Branches must meet with the Board immediately prior to the annual general meeting of the Company to discuss the annual report of their respective Branch and to discuss any business that is relevant to their respective Branch.

(v) Notwithstanding By-Law 3.3(c)(ii), the initial Branch President shall hold office from the conclusion of the first Branch Annual Meeting until the conclusion of the second Branch Annual Meeting.

(d) Branch Past President

(i) Upon retiring as the Branch President, that member of the Branch Executive by default immediately becomes the Branch Past President.

(ii) The Branch Past President shall have a term of one (1) year as Branch Past President.

(iii) The Branch Past President is not eligible for re-election to the position of Branch President Elect on or ever after the expiry of that one (1) year term.

(e) Branch Secretary

(i) The Branch Secretary shall be elected in accordance with By-Law 4.5.

(ii) The Branch Secretary shall hold the office of Branch Secretary for a term of two (2) years.

(iii) The Branch Secretary shall be eligible for re-election to the position of Branch Secretary for a further term of two (2) years. The Branch Secretary shall not hold office of Branch Secretary for more than four (4) consecutive years. (For the avoidance of doubt, the person holding office as Branch Secretary would be eligible to hold another office.)

(f) Branch Treasurer

(i) The Branch Treasurer shall be elected in accordance with By-Law 4.5.

(ii) The Branch Treasurer shall hold the office of Branch Treasurer for a term of two (2) years.
The Branch Treasurer shall be eligible for re-election to the position of Branch Treasurer for a further term of two (2) years. The Branch Treasurer shall not hold office of Branch Treasurer for more than four (4) consecutive years. (For the avoidance of doubt, the person holding office as Branch Treasurer would be eligible to hold another office.)

(g) Ordinary Branch Executive Members

(i) Ordinary Branch Executive Members shall be elected in accordance with By-Law 4.5.

(ii) An Ordinary Branch Executive Member shall hold the office of Ordinary Branch Executive Member for a term of two (2) years.

(iii) An Ordinary Branch Executive Member shall be eligible for re-election to the position of Ordinary Branch Executive Member for a further term of two (2) years. Ordinary Branch Executive Members shall not hold office of Ordinary Branch Executive Member for more than four (4) consecutive years. (For the avoidance of doubt, the person holding office as Ordinary Branch Executive Member would be eligible to hold another office on the Branch Executive upon the expiry of his or her term as Ordinary Branch Executive Member.)

4.4 Nominations

(a) Nominations for election to the Branch Executive shall be in writing signed by two (2) or more Branch Members and shall be accompanied by the consent in writing of the nominee to serve on the Branch Executive if elected.

(b) Nominations shall be delivered to the Branch Secretary not less than seven (7) days prior to the Branch Annual Meeting at which the election is to take place.

4.5 Election of Branch Executive Committee

(a) If the nominations received for election of Branch Members to the Branch Executive are not in excess of the vacancies, the chairman of the Branch Annual Meeting shall declare such persons duly elected.

(b) If insufficient nominations are received to fill the vacancies of Branch Members on the Branch Executive, the candidates nominated shall be deemed to be elected and further nominations for the vacant positions shall be received at the Branch Annual Meeting.
(c) If more candidates are nominated than there are vacancies to be filled, then a ballot shall be held. The Branch Executive shall determine, in its discretion, how the ballot shall be conducted.

4.6 General Right to Appoint and Remove Branch Executive Members

(a) If there is ever a casual vacancy in the office of Branch President, the Branch President Elect or Branch Past President, as the case may be, will fill such casual vacancy, hold office for the balance of the term of the vacating Branch President and where the person filling the casual vacancy is the Branch President Elect, shall continue to hold office for the full term that the Branch President Elect would have held office as Branch President if the original Branch President had not vacated.

(b) If there is ever a casual vacancy in the office of Branch President Elect, Branch Past President, Branch Secretary or Branch Treasurer, the Branch President can, in his or her discretion:

(i) decide that the particular office in question shall remain vacant for the balance of the term of the vacating Branch Executive member. At the next Branch Annual Meeting, the Branch Members shall, in accordance with By-Law 4.5, elect a Branch Member to the vacant office; or

(ii) appoint a Branch Member to the vacant office until the next Branch Annual Meeting of the Branch, where the Branch Members shall, in accordance with By-Law 4.5, elect a Branch Member to the vacant office.

4.7 Absence from Meetings

Any member of the Branch Executive who absents himself from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Branch Executive shall forfeit his or her position where:

(a) he or she has not obtained leave of absence from the Branch Executive; and

(b) a majority of the Branch Executive (excluding the member in question) vote in favour of that member of the Branch Executive forfeiting his or her position.
4.8 Meeting Schedule

(a) The Branch Executive shall meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as its members deem fit, provided that it shall meet a minimum of four (4) times per annum.

(b) All Branch Executive members must be notified of all meetings.

(c) A Branch Executive meeting may be convened or held using any technology consented to by all Branch Executive members. The consent may be a standing one. A Branch Executive member may withdraw consent to the use of a particular technology within a reasonable time period before a Branch Executive meeting.

4.9 Special Meetings

The Branch President, on the written request of any three (3) members of the Branch Executive or at the direction of the Board, shall summon a meeting of the Branch Executive within fourteen (14) days of such requisition.

4.10 Resolutions not in a Meeting

(a) A resolution in writing signed by all members of the Branch Executive (including email signatures) shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Branch Executive duly convened and held.

(b) Such resolution may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more members of the Branch Executive.

(c) The resolution is deemed to be passed upon the execution of the last signature.

4.11 Removal and Replacement of a Branch Executive Member (See also By-Laws 3.3 and 4.4)

(a) The Branch Executive may by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the Branch Members Present at a Branch Special Meeting, of which not less than twenty one (21) days notice specifying the intention or proposing the resolution shall have been given, remove any member of the Branch Executive before the expiration of his or her period of office.

(b) To replace a Branch Executive member removed pursuant to By-Law 4.11(a), the Branch Executive may by resolution passed by a majority of Branch Executive members voting in person, appoint another Branch Member in his or her place to hold office until the completion of the replaced Branch Executive member's term.

(c) The continuing members of the Branch Executive may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Branch Executive. If and for so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to By-Law 4.1(a), the continuing members may act for the purpose of increasing their number to that minimum number or summoning a Branch Special Meeting, but for no other purpose.

4.12 Decisions of the Branch Executive
(a) Subject to these By-Laws, questions arising at any meeting of the Branch Executive shall be decided by a majority of votes and all questions so decided shall for all purposes be deemed a determination of the Branch Executive.

(b) All Branch Executive members shall have one vote on any question. The Branch President shall also have a casting vote (in addition to his or her deliberative vote) where voting is equal.

(c) No decision of the Branch Executive is valid if it is in breach of any provision of the Constitution or could result in a breach of any provision of the Constitution.

4.13 Quorum
A majority of the duly elected members of the Branch Executive shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the Branch Executive.

4.14 Chairman
The Branch President shall, if present, preside as chairman of every meeting of the Branch Executive.

5. MEETINGS OF BRANCH MEMBERS

5.1 Branch Annual Meeting
A Branch Annual Meeting shall be held each year at such time and place as the Branch Executive shall appoint.

5.2 Branch Special Meeting
(a) Any two (2) Branch Executive members may, whenever those Branch Executive members think fit, convene a Branch Special Meeting.
(b) Any ten (10) Branch Members shall be entitled to require a Branch Special Meeting to be convened.

5.3 Chairman

The Branch President shall, if present, preside as chairman for all meetings of the Branch Members.

5.4 Proceddings at Branch Annual Meetings

The business of the Branch Annual Meeting shall be the following:

(a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding Branch Annual Meeting, no discussions being permitted thereon except as to their accuracy as a record of proceedings of that meeting;

(b) to receive the Branch President's Report and any financial statements of the Branch for the last preceding year and to review the proposed budget for the forthcoming year;

(c) to elect members to the Branch Executive as provided in these By-Laws;

(d) to transact special business of which not less than thirty (30) days prior notice shall have been given to the Branch President;

(e) to transact any other business the meeting may think fit to be transacted as ordinary business; and

(f) to hand over to the incoming Branch President (if applicable).

5.5 Notice of Meetings

Except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws not less than:

(a) seven (7) days notice shall be given of a meeting of the Branch Executive; and

(b) twenty one (21) days notice of the Branch Annual Meeting; and

(c) twenty one (21) days notice of any Branch Special Meeting; and

(d) in the case of special business, thirty (30) days notice of the general nature of that business shall be given; in the manner hereinafter mentioned to all Branch Members. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with the consent of the majority of Branch Members entitled to receive notice of some particular meeting, that meeting may be convened by such shorter notice and in such manner as those Branch Members may think fit.

5.6 Decisions of a Branch Member Meeting

(a) At a Branch Annual Meeting or a Branch Special Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be declared on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by the chairman of the meeting or by at least two (2) Branch Members Present.

(b) If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and unless the meeting is adjourned the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

(c) Unless in accordance with these By-Laws a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the proceedings of the Branch shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

(d) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

5.7 Quorum

At any Branch Annual Meeting or Branch Special Meeting, five (5) Branch Members Present and entitled to vote, shall constitute a quorum.

6. SUB-COMMITTEES

(a) The Branch Executive may appoint from amongst its members such sub-committees as in its discretion it considers necessary or expedient and may appoint other Members to such sub-committees in an advisory capacity for any purpose which it considers to be in the best interests of the Branch and of the Company.

(b) The Branch Executive may delegate any of its powers to such sub-committees consisting of such numbers of Members as it thinks fit and any sub-committees so formed shall in the exercise of its powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed upon it by the Branch Executive with the approval of the Board.
7. RECORDS OF PROCEEDINGS

(a) The Branch Executive shall cause minutes to be made for the purpose of:

(i) all appointments of office bearers (including the Branch President) made by the Branch Executive;

(ii) the names of the members of the Branch Executive present at each meeting of the Branch Executive and of any sub-committee thereof; and

(iii) all resolutions and proceedings at all meetings of the Branch and of the Branch Executive and of sub-committees set up under these By-Laws.

(b) The Branch Executive shall with reasonable expedition transmit to the Office a copy of all minutes so caused to be made.

8. REPORTING

(a) The Branch Executive shall cause a Branch annual report to be produced in the form required by the Board from time to time.

(b) The Branch Executive shall transmit a copy of the report to the Office each year prior to the Company’s annual general meeting so that it can be included in the annual reports of the Company. The report must be provided to the Board in accordance with the Board’s timeframe, to be determined by the Board from time to time.

9. ACCOUNTS AND FINANCES

(a) The Branch Executive shall prepare an annual budget for the Branch.

(b) The annual budget must be approved by the Treasurer of the Company. Such approval will not be unreasonably withheld where the proposed expenditure of the Branch does not exceed the proposed income to be generated by the Branch. Where the proposed expenditure of the Branch does exceed the proposed income to be generated by the Branch, the approval of the proposed budget will be at the discretion of the Treasurer of the Company.
Any income generated by the Branch Executive must only be obtained by means that:

(i) do not, in the opinion of the Board, compromise the professional integrity of the Company;

(ii) accord with the law; and

(iii) accord with the Constitution.

The Branch Executive shall:

(i) ensure that all expenditure of the Branch is in accordance with the approved budget;

(ii) obtain the prior approval of the Board for any proposed expenditure by the Branch which is not in accordance with the approved budget;

(iii) promptly forward to the Office all invoices and receipts in relation to any expenditure incurred by the Branch; and

(iv) promptly forward to the Office all monies received by the Branch.

10. DISCONTINUANCE OF A BRANCH

The Branch shall cease to be a Branch of the Company:

(i) if it ceases to have at least ten (10) Branch Members; or

(ii) if the Board withdraws the authority upon which the Branch was established and functioned as such.

In the case of the discontinuance of a Branch (or in the case of TSANZ NZ, the winding up or dissolution of TSANZ NZ, if allowed by the law in New Zealand), the property, effects, assets, books of account and records used, held or established by the Branch under these By-Laws shall thereupon be transferred to the Company in such manner as the Board shall determine. In the event of the dissolution of the Company, the surplus assets of the Branch (if any) shall be dealt with in accordance with the Constitution.
SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

11. SIGS

11.1 SIGs

As at the date of incorporation of the Company, the following SIGs had been established:

(a) asthma and allergy;
(b) cell biology and immunology;
(c) COPD;
(d) cystic fibrosis;
(e) evidence-based medicine and practice
(f) interventional pulmonology;

(l) tobacco and related substances;
(m) paediatric;
(n) physiotherapy;
(o) primary care;
(p) respiratory nurses; and
(q) rural and regional.

12. PURPOSE

(a) The general aim of SIGs relating to common disease/public health/research is to:
(i) foster research collaboration and exchange of information among physicians, other health care professionals and scientists within a common, defined area of interest; and

(ii) perform the following other key roles:

(A) to contribute to the development and staging of scientific sessions at the annual scientific meeting of the Company;

(B) to provide advice and support to the Board, Branch Executives, Standing Sub-Committees and any other subcommittees formed by the Company;

(C) to advocate on behalf of the SIG Members for new ideas, activities and directions that may require the support of a Branch Executive and/or the Board;

(D) to provide advice to the Respiratory and Sleep Training Committee on appropriate issues as determined by the Members on the Respiratory and Sleep Training Committee;

(E) support the Board on matters relating to press releases and other media matters; and

(F) to keep the broader Membership of the Company aware of their activities through regular communication to the Membership.

(b) The general aim of other SIGs is to:

(i) empower the SIGs within the Company to enhance their identity and those areas specific to their professional area. This involves, but is not limited to:

(A) promoting education; and

(B) fostering research collaboration and exchange of information among all health care professionals and scientists involved in this professional area; and

(ii) perform the following other key roles:

(A) all of the roles listed in By-Law Schedule 112(a)(ii);
(B) to provide specific professional representation of Members on appropriate Company subcommittees;

(C) to provide advice to appropriate subcommittees with respect to position papers, consensus statements and key issues; and

(D) to advocate to the Board on all matters which are specific to the professional role of the SIG Members that require the support of the Board to external agencies.

13. ESTABLISHMENT OF SIGS

(a) Members wishing to establish a new SIG must prepare a proposal for the establishment of the new SIG and provide the proposal to the Company Secretary for consideration by the Board.

(b) The proposal must contain such information as required by the Board from time to time.

(c) Where the Board approves the establishment of a new SIG, the Board will appoint the initial Convenor(s) and Deputy Convenor(s) who will hold office until the next SIG Annual Meeting.

14. SIG MEMBERSHIP

14.1 Membership

A SIG shall have not less than:

(a) ten (10) SIG Members during its first year; and

(b) ten (10) Voting SIG Members thereafter.

14.2 Individual Members

(a) SIG Membership shall be open to any Member.

(b) Members are permitted to be members of up to four (4) SIGs at any one time.

14.3 Cessation of Membership

A SIG Member shall cease to be a SIG Member:
(a) if he or she ceases to be a Member of the Company; or
(b) if he or she resigns his or her SIG Membership.

14.4 Voting and Non-Voting SIG Members

(a) Each year the Company will request that Members rank from one to four, four (4) SIGs that they identify with or are interested in.

(b) Where a Member does not nominate a SIG relating to areas specific to the SIG’s professional area as a preference, that Member:

(i) will be a Voting SIG Member of those SIGs that he or she nominates as his or her first and second preference; and

(ii) will be a Non-voting SIG Member of those SIGs that he or she nominates as his or her third and fourth preference.

(c) Where a Member does nominate a SIG relating to areas specific to the SIG’s professional area as a preference, that Member:

(i) will be a Voting SIG Member of that SIG;

(ii) will be a Voting SIG Member of the top two ranking SIGs relating to common disease/public health/research; and

(iii) will be a Non-voting SIG Member of the remaining SIG.

15. CONVENOR(S) AND DEPUTY CONVENOR(S) OF SIGS

15.1 Election

(a) At the first SIG Annual Meeting after registration of the Company the Voting SIG Members shall elect from among their number the following office bearers:

(i) one (1) or two (2) Convenors; and

(ii) one (1) or two (2) Deputy Convenors.

(b) At the third SIG Annual Meeting after registration of the Company and every second SIG Annual Meeting thereafter, the Voting SIG Members shall elect from among their number one (1) or two (2) Deputy Convenors.
(c) Voting SIG Members will decide by majority vote whether to elect one (1) or two (2) Deputy Convenors. At the first SIG Annual Meeting, there must be the same number of Convenors elected as Deputy Convenors. Voting SIG Members may decide to elect two (2) Deputy Convenors instead of one (1) Deputy Convenor where, for example:

(i) the SIG has a large number of SIG Members; or

(ii) there is a need to represent distinct subgroups within the SIG.

(d) The SIG must ensure that the details of the Convenor(s) and Deputy Convenor(s), once elected, are provided to the Company Secretary.

15.2 Deputy Convenor(s)

(a) With the exception of the initial Convenor(s), prior to a SIG Member being appointed as the Convenor, that SIG Member shall be required to have served a two (2) year term as Deputy Convenor immediately prior to assuming office as the Convenor.

(b) The Deputy Convenor(s) shall hold the office of Deputy Convenor(s) for a term of two (2) years.

15.3 Convenor(s)

(a) The Deputy Convenor(s) shall, on the expiry of his or her two (2) year term, by default assume the position of Convenor(s).

(b) The Convenor(s) shall hold the office of Convenor(s) for a term of two (2) years.

(c) The Convenor(s) is not eligible for re-election as Deputy Convenor(s) on or ever after the expiry of the two (2) year term referred to in By-Law 14.3(b).

16. MEETINGS OF SIG MEMBERS

16.1 SIG Annual Meeting

(a) A meeting of SIG Members shall be held each year (SIG Annual Meeting) in conjunction with the annual scientific meeting of the Company. (However, SIG Members are permitted to convene meetings at other times if thought necessary to enable a SIG to fulfil its purposes.)
The SIG Annual Meeting is open to all Members, regardless of whether a Member is also a SIG Member.

16.2 Chairman
(a) The Convenor shall, where present, be the chairman for all meetings of SIG Members.
(b) Where there is more than one (1) Convenor, the Convenors shall appoint one (1) of their number to be the chairman for all SIG Members.

16.3 Proceedings at SIG Annual Meetings
The business of the SIG Annual Meeting shall be the following:
(a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding SIG Annual Meeting, no discussions being permitted thereon except as to their accuracy as a record of proceedings of that meeting;
(b) to elect the Convenor(s) and Deputy Convenor(s) as provided in these By-Laws;
(c) to transact special business of which not less than thirty (30) days notice shall have been given to the chairman;
(d) to transact any other business the meeting may think fit to be transacted as ordinary business; and
(e) to hand over to the incoming Convenor(s) (if applicable).

16.4 Notice of Meetings
(a) Except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, not less than twenty one (21) days notice of the SIG Annual Meeting shall be provided to SIG Members.
(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, with the consent of all the SIG Members entitled to receive notice of some particular meeting, the meeting may be convened by such shorter notice and in such manner as those SIG Members may think fit.

16.5 Voting Rights
All Voting SIG Members have one (1) vote, both on a show of hands and a poll.

16.6 Decisions of a SIG Annual Meeting
(a) At a SIG Annual Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be declared on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by the Chair or by at least two (2) SIG Members in person or by proxy.

(b) If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the Chair directs, and unless the meeting is adjourned the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

(c) Unless in accordance with these By-Laws a poll is demanded, a declaration by the Chair that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the proceedings of the SIG shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

(d) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

16.7 Quorum
At any SIG Annual Meeting, five (5) SIG Members Present and entitled to vote, shall constitute a quorum.

16.8 SIG Convenors Meeting
(a) A meeting of the Convenors of each SIG will be held at the annual scientific meeting of the Company.

(b) At least one (1) Convenor (or his or her nominated Deputy Convenor) of each SIG shall attend that meeting.

17. RECORDS OF PROCEEDINGS

(a) Each SIG shall cause minutes to be made for the purpose of:

(i) all appointments of office bearers made by the SIG;

(ii) the names of the SIG Members Present at each meeting of the SIG; and

(iii) all resolutions and proceedings at all meetings of the SIG.

(b) The chairman shall with reasonable expedition transmit to all SIG Members and the Company Secretary a copy of all minutes so caused to be made.
18. REPORTING

(a) Each SIG shall cause a brief annual report to be produced in the form required by the Board from time to time.

(b) Each SIG shall transmit a copy of the report to the Office each year prior to the Company’s annual general meeting so that it can be included in the annual reports of the Company. The report must be provided to the Board in accordance with the Board’s timeframe, to be determined by the Board from time to time.

(c) In addition to the annual report, SIGs must also provide the Company Secretary with a brief report on the activities of the SIG, when so requested by the Company Secretary. Such reports will generally be requested six (6) months after the annual report.

19. ACCOUNTS AND FINANCES

(a) The Convenor(s) and/or Deputy Convenor(s) may choose to prepare an annual budget for the SIG.

(b) Where the Convenor(s) and/or Deputy Convenor(s) choose to prepare an annual budget for the SIG, the annual budget must be approved by the Treasurer of the Company.

(c) Any income generated by the SIG must only be obtained by means that:

(i) do not, in the opinion of the Board, compromise the professional integrity of the Company;

(ii) accord with the law; and

(iii) accord with the Constitution.

(d) The Convenor(s) and/or Deputy Convenor(s) shall:

(i) ensure that all expenditure of the SIG is in accordance with the approved budget;

(ii) obtain the prior approval of the Board for any proposed expenditure by the SIG which is not in accordance with the approved budget;

(iii) promptly forward to the Office all invoices and receipts in relation to any expenditure incurred by the SIG; and
(iv) promptly forward to the Office all monies received by the SIG.

20. DISCONTINUANCE OF A SIG

(a) A SIG shall cease to be a SIG of the Company if:

(i) it ceases to have at least ten (10) SIG Members in its initial year;

(ii) it ceases to have at least ten (10) Voting SIG Members at any time after its initial year; or

(iii) the Board withdraws the authority upon which the SIG was established and functioned as such.

(b) In the case of the discontinuance of a SIG, the property, effects, assets, books of account and records used, held or established by the SIG under these By-Laws shall thereupon be transferred to the Company in such manner as the Board shall determine. In the event of the dissolution of the Company, the surplus assets of the SIG (if any) shall be dealt with in accordance with the Constitution.

GENERAL

21. BY-LAWS

21.1 Alterations to By-Laws

No new By-Laws shall be made nor shall any By-Law be altered or rescinded except by resolution of the Board.

21.2 Interpretation of the By-Laws

In the event of any difference of opinion as to the interpretation of any provisions in these By-Laws, or in the event of a requirement for a decision on any matter not especially provided for by these By-Laws, the matter shall be referred to the Board and its decision shall be conclusive and binding.

THE THORACIC SOCIETY OF AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND LIMITED ABN 17 057 925 836 of Level 4, 5 Hunter Street, Sydney NSW AUSTRALIA 2000

(Company)

Recitals
A. The Company is an Australian public company limited by guarantee, registered in 2011.
B. The Society is a New Zealand incorporated society, registered under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908 (NZ) in 1994.
C. Pursuant to the constitution of the Company, the Society is both a member and a branch of the Company, and has the rights and obligations of a member of the Company, pursuant to the Company’s constitution.
D. Certain clauses in the Society’s Constitution (which is to be adopted in 2015) provide the Company with certain rights.
E. The Company is not a party to the Society’s Constitution, as the Company is neither a Member nor an Executive Member of the Society.
F. The Society desires to explicitly endorse and consent to the Company enforcing its rights as set out in the Society’s Constitution (which is to be adopted in 2015), as well as additional rights in favour of the Company, upon the terms and conditions of this Deed.

Operative Provisions

1 Definitions and Interpretation

1.1 Definitions
In this Deed, any reference to a term which has been defined in the Society’s Constitution (which is to be adopted in 2015) has the same meaning in this Deed. Otherwise, the following terms have the following respective meanings:

Business Day means a day on which banks are open for business in New South Wales.

1.2 Interpretation
In this Deed, unless otherwise indicated by the context:
(a) words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa;
(b) headings are for convenience only and do not affect interpretation of this document;
(c) a reference to a clause, paragraph, schedule or annexure is a reference to a clause, paragraph or schedule of or annexure to this document;
(d) a reference to “$” is to Australian dollars;
(e) an expression importing a natural person includes a body corporate, partnership, joint venture or association;
(f) a reference to a statute or regulation includes all amendments, consolidations or replacements thereof;
(g) a reference to a party to a document includes that party’s successors and permitted assigns;
(h) no rule of construction applies to the disadvantage of a party because that party was responsible for the preparation of this document;
(i) if an event must occur on a stipulated day which is not a Business Day, then the stipulated day will be taken to be the next Business Day; and
(j) a reference to a body, whether statutory or not:
   (i) which ceases to exist; or
   (ii) whose powers or functions are transferred to another body, is a reference to the body which replaces it or which substantially succeeds to its powers or functions.

2 Consent to the Company enforcing its rights and powers

2.1 Rights in the Constitution (which is to be adopted in 2015)

(a) Clauses 4.3 and 4.4 of the Society’s Constitution state that the Company has the right to receive and determine applications for Membership to the Society.
(b) Clause 5(e) of the Society’s Constitution states that the Company has the power to transfer Members to alternate classes of Membership.
(c) Clause 6 of the Society’s Constitution states that the Company has the power to discipline Members referred by the Society, and in the case of a Member so referred may:
   (i) expel the Member from the Society; or
   (ii) suspend the Member from Membership of the Society for a specified period.
(d) Clause 8(a) of the Society’s Constitution states that the Company has the right to receive and administer all subscriptions and other funds, except donations, received by or originating from the Society.
(e) Clause 8(c) of the Society’s Constitution states that the Company has the right to hold all funds raised by and assets belonging to the Society.
(f) Clause 8(d) of the Society’s Constitution states that the Company has the right to consider and ratify the prospective annual budget for the Society, at the discretion of the Company’s board.
(g) Clause 8(e) of the Society’s Constitution states that the chief executive officer of the Company has the right to be a joint signatory on all cheques and withdrawals from the bank account of the Society.
(h) Clause 9.13(c) of the Society’s Constitution states that the chief executive officer of the Company has the right to attend all Executive meetings as a guest, and to receive at least three (3) weeks’ notice of all such meetings.

(i) Clause 13 of the Society’s Constitution states that the chief executive officer of the Company shall have custody of the Common Seal of the Society.

2.2 Consent to the Company enforcing its rights and powers in the Constitution

(a) Despite the Company not being a party to the Society’s Constitution, the Society hereby consents to the Company exercising its rights and powers as contained in:

   (i) the clauses referred to in clause 2.1 above (and any variation thereof); and

   (ii) any other clauses inserted into the Society’s Constitution (which is to be adopted in 2015) in the future which grant directly or indirectly any rights or powers in favour of the Company; as against the Society and/or its Executive Members.

(b) The Company shall be entitled to exercise its rights and powers pursuant to clauses 2.1 and 2.2(a) as from the date of adoption of the Society’s Constitution.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses 2.1, 2.2(a) and 2.2(b), in the event that the Members do not adopt the Society’s Constitution (which is to be adopted in 2015), the Company shall still be entitled to exercise its rights and powers as contained in the current version of the Society’s Constitution (which was adopted in 2011).

2.3 Additional rights of the Company

In addition to the rights and powers contained in the Society’s Constitution, the Society grants the Company the power to appoint its chief executive officer as a signatory of the Society, whereby the chief executive officer of the Company is authorised to execute any agreement, deed or other document with the prior approval of the Executive.

3 Dispute resolution

3.1 Notice of dispute

If either party disputes any matter in connection with the Deed the disputing party must give the other party a notice in writing (Notice of Dispute) which includes:

(a) an outline of the basis and nature of the dispute; and

(b) the quantum or likely quantum of any claim or proposed claim.

3.2 Resolution of dispute

(a) Within five (5) Business Days of receipt of the Notice of Dispute, a representative of each party must meet and attempt to resolve the dispute within ten (10) Business Days of receipt of the Notice of Dispute.

(b) If the parties fail to resolve the dispute within fifteen (15) Business Days of receipt of the Notice of Dispute, the parties may take whatever action they consider necessary to resolve the dispute.
4 Effective Date of Deed

4.1 Effective Date

This Deed becomes effective on the date of execution of this Deed, or on the date of adoption of the Society’s Constitution (which is to be adopted in 2015), whichever is the earlier.

5 Notices

time it was sent unless the sender receives notification that the electronic transmission was unsuccessful.

5.4 Change of Address for Service
A party may change its address for service by giving notice of that change in writing to the other parties.

6 General Provisions

6.1 Severability
If any clause or part of a clause of this document is invalid, illegal, unlawful or otherwise being incapable of enforcement, that clause or part of a clause will be deemed to be severed from this document and of no force and effect but all other clauses and parts of clauses of this document will nevertheless prevail and remain in full force and effect and be valid and fully enforceable and no clause or part of a clause of this document will be construed to be dependent upon any other clause or part of a clause unless so expressed.

6.2 Governing Law and Jurisdiction
(a) This document is governed by the laws of New South Wales.
(b) Each party irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales.

6.3 Further Assurance
Each party will from time to time do all things (including executing all documents) necessary or desirable to give full effect to this document.

6.4 Counterparts
This document may be executed in any number of counterparts each of which will be an original but such counterparts together will constitute one and the same instrument and the date of the document will be the date on which it is executed by the last party.

6.5 Whole Agreement
This document embodies the whole agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter of this document and supersedes any and all oral and written negotiations and communications by or on behalf of any of them. The parties have not, in entering into this document, relied upon any warranty representation or statement, whether oral or written, made or published by any other party or any person on behalf of any other party or otherwise in connection howsoever with the subject matter of this document, except such as are expressly provided herein and subject thereto have relied entirely upon their own enquiries relating to the subject matter of this document. The parties agree that to the extent that each of them may exclude any warranties or conditions which might otherwise be implied in connection with this document or the subject matter of this document by any competent legislation, then each party expressly excludes from application all such implied warranties and conditions.

6.6 Rights Not Affected by Failure to Enforce
The failure of either party at any time to enforce any of the provisions of this document or any rights in respect hereto or to exercise any election herein provided will not be a waiver of such provisions, rights or elections or affect the validity of this document.
